Dimensions of State & Urban Policy Making Richard H. Leach, Timothy G. O'Rourke, 1975      Learning from Other Countries: The Cross-National Dimension in Urban Policy Making I. Masser, Mrs Bernadette Williams, R. Williams, 2005-08-11

Looking at the lessons we can learn from international research in urban and regional planning this book explores the challenges in using cross country studies The contributors address how to approach researching planning in other countries and how to then diffuse the planning information Key topics include comparable urban data and how to use it working with international agencies methodological issues in cross country research translating theory into practice Case studies include researching new towns in France and Poland and problems doing empirical work in Eastern Europe      Transforming Urban Nightlife and the Development of Smart Public Spaces Abusaada, Hisham, Elshater, Abeer, Rodwell, Dennis, 2021-05-14 Public places are places where all citizens irrespective of their race age religion or class level social or economic cannot be excluded It serves to improve the lifestyle experience of its inhabitants as well as promote social connections All citizens are responsible for it and are interested in it and the intervention for change must be the responsibility of all without exception As such bottom up urban planning is essential for urban environments and for transforming nightlife in public places in order to create more meaningful experiences and instill a greater sense of identity and community Transforming Urban Nightlife and the Development of Smart Public Spaces analyzes the patterns of transformations of nightlife in public life The book investigates urban nightlife transformations and the challenge of enhancing the sense of belonging in sensitive areas such as local communities and historical sites The chapters present new insights to control the chaotic intervention related to the elements of traditional or digital technology whether from citizens themselves or local authorities The objective also is to document urban nightlife transformations that enhance the sense of belonging in historical sites Important topics covered include urban gamification digital urban art urban socio ecosystems and reimagining space in the urban nightlife This book is ideal for urban planners developers social scientists technologists civil engineers architects policymakers government officials practitioners researchers academicians and students who are interested in urban nightlife and nightscape and the smart technologies used for transformation      Metropolitan Regions, Planning and Governance Karsten Zimmermann, Daniel Galland, John Harrison, 2019-10-24 The aim of this book is to investigate contemporary processes of metropolitan change and approaches to planning and governing metropolitan regions To do so it focuses on four central tenets of metropolitan change in terms of planning and governance institutional approaches policy mobilities spatial imaginaries and planning styles The book's main contribution lies in providing readers with a new conceptual and analytical framework for researching contemporary dynamics in metropolitan regions It will chiefly benefit researchers and students in planning urban studies policy and governance studies especially those interested in metropolitan regions The relentless pace of urban change in globalization poses fundamental questions about how to best plan and govern 21st century metropolitan regions The problem for metropolitan regions especially for those with policy and decision making responsibilities is a growing recognition that these spaces are typically reliant on inadequate urban economic infrastructure and fragmented planning and governance arrangements Moreover as the demand for more appropriate i e more flexible networked and smart forms of planning and governance increases new expressions of territorial cooperation and conflict are emerging around issues and agendas of de growth infrastructure expansion and the collective provision of services

Geo-Spatial Technologies in Urban Environments Ryan R. Jensen, Jay D. Gatrell, Daniel D. McLean, 2005 The purpose of this book is to investigate and develop alternate methodological approaches to understand urban environments and urban change In particular the study demonstrates the application of remote sensing data and geographic information systems to the exploration of issues often ignored by the mainstream community of geo technical specialists such as urban forestry urban traffic migration or quality of life in urban areas Case studies show how disciplines like environmental science and planning sociology landscape ecology and architecture regional science and policy design and assessment can benefit from employing remote sensing data and GIS

Handbook of Urban Politics and Policy Ronald K. Vogel, 2024-07-05 This authoritative Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of research into urban politics and policy in cities across the globe Leading scholars examine the position of urban politics within political science and analyse the critical approaches and interdisciplinary pressures that are broadening the field
