Dimensions Of Africas International Rela:

Dimensions of Africa's International Relations Omari H. Kokole,1993      Africa and International Relations in the 21st Century S. Cornelissen,F. Cheru,T. Shaw,2011-10-18 This book examines key emergent trends related to aspects of power sovereignty conflict peace development and changing social dynamics in the African context It challenges conventional IR precepts of authority politics and society which have proven to be so inadequate in explaining African processes Rather this edited collection analyses the significance of many of the uncharted dimensions of Africa s international relations such as the respatialisation of African societies through migration and the impacts this process has had on state power the various ways in which both formal and informal authority and economies are practised and the dynamics and impacts of new transnational social movements on African politics Finally attention is paid to Africa s place in a shifting global order and the implications for African international relations of the emergence of new world powers and or alliances This edition includes a new preface by the editors which brings the findings of the book up to date and analyses the changes that are likely to impact upon global governance and human development in policy and practice in Africa and the wider world post 2015      The Ethnic Dimension in International Relations Bernard Schechterman,Martin

Slann,1993-06-30 This book focuses on ethnic nationalism and its universality as a phenomenon in world politics By employing case studies the essays demonstrate the past current and future persistence of this fragmenting tendency and its implications for various regional and world wide political dynamics By its very comprehensiveness and geographic case diversity the study provides evidence that there are two simultaneous and sometimes contradictory dynamics taking place in the international political arena integration and fragmentation This collection of essays analyzes fragmentation There are significant implications for description analysis evaluation and prescriptive policy in international relations This book challenges the bias in post war America and the West overall that the preeminent if not exclusive political behavior tendency in regional and world politics is integration of actors and their behavior While not seeking to refute or deny integration it suggests balancing the analysis of international politics by upgrading the fragmentation tendencies based upon a very basic phenomenon ethnic nationalism      United States - Africa Security Relations Kelechi A. Kalu,George Klay

Kieh,2013-11-07 United States Africa relations have experienced four major cycles The first cycle was during the Cold War 1960 1990 During this period the U S developed a one sided relationship with various African states in which the latter served as foot soldiers for the U S in its competition with the Soviet Union for global domination Among other things the various client African states provided the U S with access to airfields deep water ports and sites for the establishment of various intelligence gathering facilities In addition the U S used various groups like UNITA led by Jonas Savimbi in Angola to undermine and fight pro Soviet regimes on the continent The second cycle of the relationship covered the period 1991 1998 During this time the U S scaled down its security activities in Africa The major reason was that with the end of the Cold War

Africa with few exceptions like Egypt was no longer a major front for the promotion of U S Security interests The third cycle commenced in 1998 and ended in 2001 This period was characterized by the U S search for an approach to frame its security relations with Africa In this vein the U S undertook various military security initiatives The fourth cycle began after the 9 11 terrorist attacks against the American homeland Since then the U S has expanded the scope of its security relations with Africa as reflected in the establishment of various initiatives and programs At the core is the prosecution of the American war on terror Against this backdrop this book examines some of the major dimensions of the U S security relations with Africa including American security interests on the continent the war on terror AFRICOM and military cooperation Using the book s integrative theoretical framework each of the chapters in the volume examines the various factors that shape the issue of focus

Zimbabwe's Military: Examining its Veto Power in the Transition to Democracy, 2008-2013 Rupiya, Martin R., 2013-10-14 Political transition and democratisation challenges have been noted in African countries including Angola Burkina Faso Kenya Mali and the Democratic Republic of the Congo resulting in the African Union AU intervening on behalf of citizens using tried and tested mechanisms of imposing a power sharing agreement to preside over a transitional period during which there are key changes to the constitution and the political conduct of the incumbency and partisan institutions are weaned from seeking to perpetuate the status quo This book focuses on Zimbabwe s military and its perceived veto power in the transition to democratisation from 2008 until 2013 The objective was to analyse monitor and comment on the unique democratic transformational challenges faced by Zimbabwe s Government of National Unity One of the book s key findings is that every time partisan forces carry out an operation in the name of a political party there is a direct correlation in which the same loses its national character This is the context of the challenge facing Zimbabwean forces when used for partisan gain and why the Southern African Development Community SADC in its last communique in Maputo on 15 June 2013 sought to compel a written undertaking from the generals that they would desist from playing a direct role in the politics of the country The AU had earlier expressed its deep regret when faced with the results of serious human rights abuses that were committed with impunity

China's Emerging Security Diplomacy in Africa Isaac Owusu Frimpong, 2025-04-26 This book presents a comprehensive analysis of China s evolving security engagement in Africa a dimension often overshadowed by earlier studies focusing on economic and political aspects As China s global ambitions expand its involvement in African security across bilateral regional and multilateral levels has intensified challenging its longstanding principle of non interference The book explores why China is shifting from a policy of non interference to one of non indifference and details the actions supporting this change Employing neoclassical realist theory it examines systemic factors domestic influences and the role of President Xi Jinping in shaping China s security strategy By adopting a three dimensional approach to Sino Africa relations and categorizing the reasons for China s policy shift into strategic culture superpower ambitions operational motives and reputational concerns the book offers fresh insights into China s security diplomacy It contributes to the broader discourse on China's changing stance and its implications for international relations highlighting the need for attention in both academic and policy circles      International Relations in Contemporary Africa Michael O. Anda, 2000 Although developing countries far outnumber fully industrialized states they are often neglected in the study of international relations especially with respect to the development of foreign policy theory International Relations in Contemporary Africa attempts to fill this void in the literature on comparative international relations while at the same time providing a detailed analysis of the economic development and integration of West African countries Michael Anda specifically focuses on the members of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and their policies which encourage coordination on issues ranging from science and technology to diplomacy and mutual defense Tracing the diplomatic history of West Africa from independence to the present he assesses the various dimensions of cooperation among the smaller and less developed states of West Africa while revealing the precarious nature of the economy and security in the region Both detailed and comprehensive International Relations in Contemporary Africa represents a significant contribution to African studies that appeal to those with an interest in the foreign policy of smaller states      The Journal of International Relations George Hubbard Blakeslee, Granville Stanley Hall, Harry Elmer Barnes, 1912      Experts in Africa Jeffrey C. Stone, 1980      The Arabs and Africa (RLE: The Arab Nation) Khair Haseeb, 2012-06-14 Concentrating on the past present and future relations of the peoples of Africa and the Arab world this book examines interaction between Arab and African countries Africa and the Arab Israeli conflict Dimensions of Afro Arab Cooperation The book concludes with an open discussion on the future of Afro Arab relations      Democratization in Sub-Saharan Africa Klaas van Walraven, Céline Thiriot, 2002      Dreams of Power K. van Walraven, 2019-01-04 Originally published in 1999 this book was the first study to provide a systematic reconstruction of the OAU's ideological ground work It is based on OAU documents a corpus of African perceptions of OAU functioning collected from governmental and non governmental newspapers and publications from more than thirty African countries and on interviews held with African diplomats and OAU officials It was also the first study to pay attention to the OAU's role in the political psychology of state elites which comes to the fore in the areas of OAU co operation discussed in this book the OAU's internal functioning the former struggle against apartheid and colonialism conflict management and the OAU's role in representing collective African viewpoints in global fora This study was originally a Ph D thesis which was considered to be among the best three dissertations in political science in The Netherlands in 1997

From the Lagos Plan of Action to the New Partnership for Africa's Development Francis Nguendi Ikome, 2007 This study brings an intellectual but also an exciting dimension to Africa's development discourse in general and NEPAD in particular It is especially remarkable in analysing the origins of regionalist impulses in Africa It shows profound contrasts between the state led internally formulated and African financed Lagos Plan of Action LPA on the one hand and the market led Western crafted and externally funded NEPAD on the other Moreover it is distinctive in its comprehensive analysis of the failures of previous regional initiatives in Africa thus bringing new insights to the political economy of regionalism in Africa This book is analytical and critical but also thought provoking Peace and Conflict in Africa David Francis,2009-03-15 Nowhere in the world is the demand for peace more prominent and challenging than in Africa From state collapse and anarchy in Somalia to protracted wars and rampant corruption in the Congo from bloody civil wars and extreme poverty in Sierra Leone to humanitarian crisis and authoritarianism in Sudan the continent is the focus of growing political and media attention This book presents the first comprehensive overview of conflict and peace across the continent Bringing together a range of leading academics from Africa and beyond Peace and Conflict in Africa is an ideal introduction to key themes of conflict resolution peacebuilding security and development The book s stress on the importance of indigenous Africa approaches to creating peace makes it an innovative and exciting intervention in the field Chinese Television and Soft Power in Africa Angela Lewis,2023-08-18 This book examines the phenomenal growth over recent years of StarTimes a Chinese pay TV company with around 30 million subscribers providing satellite television to 20 African countries The broadcaster whose markets include demographic groups deemed uneconomic by Western television providers combines entertainment such as Chinese drama and Kung Fu content dubbed into African languages with Chinese state programming thus making the station at least partially a public diplomacy instrument At the same time the channel provides new indigenous language channels widened access to television in rural areas and sponsors African soccer brands The book considers all aspects of StarTimes how it fits into China s development assistance programmes its structure as a private company nonetheless financed by Chinese banks and based on extensive interview research in Ghana Kenya and Zambia how the station is perceived by media professionals Overall the book shows how this major Chinese international media expansion both contributes very significantly to African development in a way which is sensitive to local concerns and at the same time enhances China s international image Political Science in South Africa Peter Vale,Pieter Fourie,2016-01-13 In 2013 and in 2014 respectively the South African Association of Political Studies SAAPS and Politikon the South African Journal of Political Studies celebrate their 40th anniversary Also in April 2014 South Africa celebrates twenty years since the advent of the post Apartheid democracy and the birth of the rainbow nation This book provides a timely account of the birth and evolution of South African politics over the past four decades but also of the study of Political Science and International Relations in this country Fourteen political scientists contribute chapters to this volume situating the study of politics within its global context and recounting the development of politics as a field of study at South African universities The fourteen contributions evaluate the state of the discipline s and suggest conclusions that are surprising and in many instances unsettling not only with regards to what and how politics is taught but also how its study has variously gained and lost pertinence for South Africans understanding of their own polity as well as its place in the world The implications are uncomfortable and pose interesting challenges for South African scholarship pedagogy and national self reflection This book was published as a special issue of Politikon      The Hidden Dimensions of Operation Murambatsvina Maurice Taonezvi Vambe, 2008

    Global Studies F. Jeffress Ramsey, 1997      Africa Jeff Ramsay, F. Jeffress Ramsay, 1999 This text provides background essays and statistics for the countries of North Africa Central Africa East Africa South Africa and West Africa with a regional essay showing the connection of North Africa to the rest of the continent      Africa Jeffress F. Ramsay, 1995 Presenting current world press articles this book focuses on the geographical cultural sociopolitical and economic aspects of Africa
