Dine Bahane:

Diné Bahane' Paul G. Zolbrod,1984 Zolbrod's book offers the general reader a vivid introduction to Navajo culture

Book of the Fourth World Gordon Brotherston,1995-11-24 The Book of the Fourth World offers detailed analyses of texts that range far back into the centuries of civilised life from what is now Latin and Anglo America At the time of its discovery the American continent was identified as the Fourth World of our planet In the course of just a few centuries its original inhabitants though settled there for millennia and countable in many millions have come to be perceived as a marginal if not entirely dispensable factor in the continent's destiny Today the term has been taken up again by its native peoples to describe their own world both its threatened present condition and its political history which stretches back thousands of years before Columbus In order to explore the literature of this world Brotherston uses primary sources that have traditionally been ignored because they have not conformed to Western definitions of oral and written literature such as the scrolls of the Algonkin the knotted strings Quipus of the Inca Navajo dry paintings and the encyclopedic pages of Meso America's screenfold books Recovering the Word Brian Swann,Arnold Krupat,1987-01-01 These essays by linguists folklorists anthropologists literary theorists and poets bring to a new level of sophistication the structural analysis of Native American literary expression Their common concern is for the appreciation and elucidation of Native American song and story and for a historical philosophical psychoanalytic and linguistic kind of commentary The essays address the overlapping issues of presentation and interpretation of Native American literature How to present in writing an art that is primarily oral dramatic and performative How to interpret that art both in its traditional forms and in its later written forms ISBN 0 520 05790 2 60 00

Sociology of Death and the American Indian Gerry R. Cox,2022-07-07 Sociology of Death and the American Indian examines dying death disposal and bereavement practices and applies those concepts to select American Indian tribes historically and currently supplemented with oral histories The focus is that learning about other cultures can enhance the understanding of one's own culture by comparing traditional and modern societies Gerry R Cox addresses the centuries of injustices committed against American Indians that led to a neglect of learning about American Indian cultures and attempts to fill the gaps in knowledge of American Indian practices Resources in Education ,1984 Dine Bahane, the Navajo Creation Story Fraser D. Klah,2024-02-19 The Navajo creation myth called the Din Bahane is one of the greatest stories of the Native American peoples filled with evocative images of nature and wondrous storytelling Hasteen M Klah was a Navajo medicine man who grew up among the culture whereby ceremonial events and sandpainting were a direct expression of the people's beliefs Over the course of his life he sought to write down the various myths of his people plus the ritual events and songs The greatest challenge Klah faced was relating the entirety of the creation myth being true and accurate to the Navajo peoples but understandable to readers unaccustomed to such an immense religion The reader will find the complexity and intricacy of their spiritual lore rewarding this book contains not only the full narration of the Din Bahane but also the verses sung by the Navajo during the telling of the story We hear further parts of the creation myth stories whereby gigantic beasts lay claim to parts of the world influencing the ancient Navajo tribe s affinity with nature and its creatures Towards the conclusion Klah includes further songs that celebrate the Earth or commemorate certain occasions and ceremonies Lastly there is a lengthy glossary explaining the many names and terms used in the mythos
