Riddle of the Feathered Dragons Alan Feduccia,2012-01-20 Examining and interpreting recent spectacular fossil discoveries in China paleontologists have arrived at a prevailing view there is now incontrovertible evidence that birds represent the last living dinosaur But is this conclusion beyond dispute In this book evolutionary biologist Alan Feduccia provides the most comprehensive discussion yet of the avian and associated evidence found in China then exposes the massive unfounded speculation that has accompanied these discoveries and been published in the pages of prestigious scientific journals Advocates of the current orthodoxy on bird origins have ignored contrary data misinterpreted fossils and used faulty reasoning the author argues He considers why and how the debate has become so polemical and makes a plea to refocus the discussion by breaking away from methodological straitjackets and viewing the world of origins anew Drawing on a lifetime of study he offers his own current understanding of the origin of birds and avian flight

New Literacies around the Globe Cathy Burnett,Julia Davies,Guy Merchant,Jennifer Rowsell,2014-07-11 The increasing popularity of digitally mediated communication is prompting us to radically rethink literacy and its role in education at the same time national policies have promulgated a view of literacy focused on the skills and classroom routines associated with print bolstered by regimes of accountability and assessments As a result teachers are caught between two competing discourses one upholding a traditional conception of literacy re iterated by politicians and policy makers and the other encouraging a more radical take on 21st century literacies driven by leading edge thinkers and researchers There is a pressing need for a book which engages researchers in international dialogue around new literacies their implications for policy and practice and how they might articulate across national boundaries Drawing on cutting edge research from the USA Canada UK Australia and South Africa this book is a pedagogical and policy driven call for change It explores studies of literacy practices in varied contexts through a refreshingly dialogic style interspersed with commentaries which comment on the significance of the work described for education The book concludes on the conversation developed to identify key recommendations for policy makers through a Charter for Literacy Education Art Nexus ,2007 Dinosaurs Donald F.
