Diplomatic Interventions Conflict And Change In A Globalising World:

Diplomatic Interventions K. Fierke, 2005-04-22 Diplomatic Interventions argues that war is a social construction In so doing it unsettles the definition of intervention as a coercive interference by one state in the affairs of another to examine the range of communicative or diplomatic practices which through their presence modify the experience of war The tension between claims that war is pervasive and that war is a social construct is analysed in relation to a range of moral legal military economic cultural and therapeutic interventions The concluding chapter highlights how the book itself is a critical intervention that requires us look at again from a new angle at international practice

The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution Jacob Bercovitch, Victor Kremeneyuk, I William Zartman, 2008-12-03 The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution demonstrates the range of themes that constitute modern conflict resolution It brings out its key issues methods and dilemmas through original contributions by leading scholars in a dynamic and expanding field of inquiry This handbook is exactly what it sets out to be an indispensable tool for teaching research and practice in conflict resolution Peter Wallensteen Professor of Peace and Conflict Research Uppsala University and University of Notre Dame Bercovitch Kremeneyuk and Zartman are among the most important figures in the conflict resolution field They have pieced together with the help of more than 35 colleagues from numerous countries a state of the art review of the sources of international conflict available methods of conflict management and the most difficult challenges facing the individuals and organizations trying to guide us through these conflict ridden times The collection is brimming with penetrating insights trenchant analyses compelling cases and disciplined speculation They help us understand both the promise of as well as the obstacles to theory building in the new field of conflict resolution Lawrence Susskind Professor and Director of the MIT Harvard Public Disputes Program The last three sentences of this persuasive book We conclude this volume more than ever convinced that conflict resolution is not just possible or desirable in the current international environment It is absolutely necessary Resolving conflicts and making peace is no longer an option it is an intellectual and practical skill that we must all possess If you are part of that we intellectually or professionally you will find this book a superb companion Thomas C Schelling Professor Emeritus Harvard University and University of Maryland Conflict resolution is one of the fastest growing academic fields in the world today Although it is a relatively young discipline having emerged as a specialized field in the 1950 s it has rapidly grown into a self contained vibrant interdisciplinary field The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution brings together all the conceptual methodological and substantive elements of conflict resolution into one volume of over 35 specially commissioned chapters The Handbook is designed to reflect where the field is today by drawing on the contributions of experts from different fields presenting in a systematic way the most recent research and practice Jacob Bercovitch is Professor of International Relations and Fellow of the Royal Society at the University of Canterbury in Christchurch New Zealand Victor Kremeneyuk is deputy director of the Institute for USA and Canada Studies Russian Academy of Sciences Moscow He is also a research associate at

Fringe Players and the Diplomatic Order Jozef Bátora, 2015-12-17 This book analyzes ways how three fringe players of the modern diplomatic order the Holy See the Sovereign Military Order of Malta and the EU have been accommodated within that order revealing that the modern diplomatic order is less state centric than conventionally assumed and is instead better conceived of as a heteronomy American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Bibliographie Mensuelle United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland),2005-07 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005 Africa in China's Global Strategy Marcel Kitissou,2007 China in the past five years has developed a proactive global policy and is emerging as a new global power with particular focus on developing countries in Central Asia Southeast Asia Latin America and Africa What is the role of Africa in China s emerging global foreign policy In 1998 China s aid to Africa was 107 million By 2004 it had reached 2 7 billion 26% of its international assistance that year In 2005 Africa China trade reached 40 billion 35% up from the previous year China is interested mainly in four sectors infrastructure projects regional banks such as the African Development Bank training of African professionals particularly in economic management and institutions of higher education with the goal of establishing Chinese language programs The human factor is also important Chinese Diaspora is fast increasing For example in Zambia it grew from 3 000 to 30 000 in ten years and in South Africa from practically none to 300 000 African countries constitute a new market for Chinese products They also provide a source of raw materials Today the continent supplies 30% of China s import of oil and gas Angola being the largest supplier with 522 000 barrels of oil per day to China The last five years Chinese oil companies spent 15 billion acquiring oil fields and local companies The appetite for raw materials goes beyond oil and gas and China s foreign political strategy is primarily to solve its own domestic problems and protect its interests in the global arena Will Africa be a pawn or a player in this emerging geopolitical game Will China s deepening relations with the continent represent a new opportunity for African countries to negotiate a new partnership and skillfully use it to the best advantage of their citizens These are some of the questions contributors to the volume have tried to answer by examining various facets of these deepening relations and underlining areas of concerns as well as the opportunities for mutually rewarding relations Dr Marcel Kitissou a historian and political scientist is a member of the public policy faculty at the Union Institute and University Cincinnati Ohio and Visiting Fellow with the Institute for African Development at Cornell University He was formerly Senior Visiting Research Scholar at the Center for Global Studies at George Mason University He has also been the Faculty Director of the Global Humanitarian Action Program and the Summer Institute on International Development of the same institution and Executive Director of the Washington DC based Africa Faith and Justice Network Earlier he founded and directed the PEACE Institute of the State University of New York at Oswego he directed a regional school of journalism in Lom and was Associate Director of the National School of Public Administration of Togo He has published widely on security issues and the politics of water in Africa Peace Research Abstracts Journal ,2002 Hyperconflict James Mittelman,2010-01-08 This book addresses two questions that are crucial to the human condition in the twenty first century does globalization promote security or fuel insecurity And what are the implications for world order Coming to grips with these matters requires building a bridge between the geoeconomics and geopolitics of globalization one that extends to the geostrategic realm Yet few analysts have sought to span this gulf Filling the void Mittelman identifies systemic drivers of global security and insecurity and demonstrates how the intense interaction between them heightens insecurity at a world level The emergent confluence he labels hyperconflict a structure characterized by a reorganization of political violence a growing climate of fear and increasing instability at a world level Ultimately his assessment offers an early warning to enable prevention of a gathering storm of hyperconflict and the establishment of enduring peace Shared Destinies ,2008 The Globalization of World Politics John Baylis,Steve Smith,Patricia Owens,2008 Now in its fourth edition this internationally successful text has been fully revised and updated in light of recent developments in world politics with new chapters on the changing nature of war human security and international ethics A comprehensive introduction to international relations it is ideally suited to students coming to the subject for the first time It provides a coherent accessible and lively account of the globalization of world politics FEATURES Contains work from an impressive line up of international contributors who are experts in their fields the chapters have been carefully edited in order to ensure an integrated and coherent style throughout the book Covers history theory structures and processes and international issues Offers a visually stunning 4 color interior Enhanced by a comprehensive Companion Website www.oup.com/uk/orc/bin/9780199297771 that includes a test bank PowerPoint slides case studies multiple choice questions links to journal articles a flashcard glossary and new to this edition video clips video pod casts of contributors and a news feed NEW TO THIS EDITION Three new chapters on the changing nature of war human security and international ethics Each chapter includes a 400 word case study More examples from the developing world Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations,Union of International Associations,2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict Stephen Iwan Griffiths,1993 This report provides an analysis of the significance of nationalism and ethnic conflict in the affairs of the populations of central and eastern Europe It describes and analyses nationalist developments particularly in the former states of Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia and examines the response of European security institutions to problems
