Adolescent Counseling Larry B. Golden, 2002 This award winning book presents a realistic picture of therapy's rewards and challenges through sixteen actual cases involving children and adolescents. Readers are exposed to a variety of counseling theories and the real live counselors who use them. The cases deal with major problem areas such as sexual abuse, dual diagnoses, seriously dysfunctional families, and addictions. A five part organization of each case covers an introduction that discusses the presenting problem and background information about the client, conceptualization of therapeutic goals and strategies, process descriptions of actual client contacts, it explains what happened in sessions and how the therapist's relationship with the client changed over time, outcome sections describing the result of the work done between therapist and client, and discussion explanations of what the author/therapist might have done differently. In addition, the author describes his or her personal and professional growth that resulted from this encounter with a troubled youngster. For child and adolescent counselors beginning their journey as therapists.
