Directors Liabilities In Case Of Insolvency:

Directors' Liabilities in Case of Insolvency Anker Sorenson, 1999-03-05 The rise in the number of cross border transactions and large insolvencies in free market countries has brought director liability to the foreground most notably regarding positions that span multiple jurisdictions and do not involve an active role in management Directors must be aware of the rules applicable in the countries in which they hold positions especially where their companies face financial difficulties or insolvency Numerous differences in the law exist even between countries close in proximity and those which speak the same language and share the same legal history The cost of failure to conform to applicable laws may be dire Numerous factors hamper access to the applicable rules however the lack of a multi national treaty dealing in depth with insolvency corporate restructuring or directors liabilities the lack of unity in applicable sanctions the complex and numerous sources of jurisdictional rules the Insolvency Act the Corporations Act and the Criminal Code or some combination the lack of jurisdictional consistency in classifying a particular behaviour as illegal the significant role of a constantly evolving body of case law and the instructions imposed on public prosecutors by governmental bodies This book navigates these complexities making the rules accessible for the reader It sets out fact patterns which trigger liability in various jurisdictions and offers helpful real world recommendations in a lucid straightforward manner The chapters follow the same basic frame and guidelines for ease of comparison Lawyers and business people alike will appreciate this clear practical guidance in a particularly challenging area of the law

Directors & Officers (D & O) Liability Simon Deakin, Helmut Koziol, Olaf Riss, 2018-02-19 In recent years several cases concerning the liability of directors and officers have courted controversy Arguments raised in such discussions oscillate between two extremes on the one hand the need for governing bodies to give a space to entrepreneurial discretion and on the other hand to ensure the protection of investors in and creditors of a company from the consequences of disadvantageous decisions by those bodies In light of the geographical dispersal of the above stakeholders the study offers a comparative insight into the liability of directors and officers in 10 key European jurisdictions in particular Austria Czech Republic Germany Italy the Netherlands Norway Poland Spain and Switzerland and 4 non European jurisdictions namely Brazil Israel Turkey and the United States Amongst other things it investigates existing company law principles on the topic and examines their interaction with tort law and other fields with a view to suggesting principles for better stakeholder protection National reports are complemented by an economic analysis and insurance conflict of laws and comparative reports The study also
