Open and Flexible Learning in Vocational Education and Training Judith Calder, Ann McCollum, 2013-10-08 This text reviews the strategies adopted in a range of behaviourist approaches to the setting and realization of standards identifying the background from which they emerged and ways in which they might be further developed Resources in Education, 1993 Good Practice in the Education and Training of Older Adults A. Withnall, Keith A. Percy, 1994 The aims of this book are to review and analyse the burgeoning literature on older people's education training and learning activity to identify and document good practice through a review of selected British case studies drawn from a statutory voluntary and commercial fields and to evaluate both literature and the findings of the case studies in order to offer a fresh perspective on good practice in this important area The book is divided into four parts philosophy and practice participation and provision case studies and redefining good practice This book will be of value to anyone interested in learning in later life including learners themselves Exploring Osaka David M. Dunfield, 1993 A comprehensive English language guide to the city of Osaka for business travellers and tourists alike Second only to Tokyo as a banking and trade centre of Japan Osaka is a centre of tradition and culture as well the home of bunraku puppet theatre for example and is minutes by rail from Japan's ancient capitals of Kyoto and Nara A variety of suggested sightseeing itineraries are included as well as recommended museums restaurants and hotels a list of festival dates and sources of additional information Re-theorising the Recognition of Prior Learning National Institute of Adult Continuing Education (England and Wales),2006 The recognition of prior learning RPL is an educational response to the need to widen participation in education and training for economic advancement and social inclusion The social meanings of RPL have different configurations depending on historical cultural economic and political forces in different places One constant is the reliance on the widely pervasive educational philosophies of experiential learning constructivism and progressivism This book challenges the orthodoxy of experiential learning and the particular readings of knowledge pedagogy learning identity and power which it privileges It does this by introducing different theoretical resources to RPL and drawing on experiences of RPL in the UK the USA Canada South Africa Australia and Sweden The book provides a range of re conceptualisations of the relational terrain between adult experience and learning on the one hand and specialist or academic knowledge on the other Working People and Lifelong Learning Andy Beattie,1997 Relates to a scheme in operation at Ford Dagenham Lifelong Learning Jim Smith,Andrea Spurling,1999 Provides a picture of lifelong learning and the changes needed if it is to become the cultural norm The book identifies the shifts in behaviour needed to establish a lifelong learning culture It shows how government and learning providers must reassess their use of time space and finance

Educators Research Their Practice: An overview of projects supported by the Adult Literacy Research Centre (South Australia) in 1997 Sue Shore,Ruth Trenerry,1999 Developing Learning in Professional Education Imogen Taylor,1997 This book is about professional education and developing the required knowledge and skills to equip students for the pressing needs of professional practice Student professionals from health care teaching business law and social work must learn how to practice both independently to respond to a constantly changing environment and collaboratively to respond to the complexity of today s society Also they must learn how to work in partnership with the consumers of professional services The author explores how professional education can develop approaches to teaching and learning which both help learners to be reflexive self monitoring practitioners and meet the requirements of professional accrediting bodies She draws upon her own research into students experiencing professional education based on small group problem based learning on an extensive range of relevant international theory and research and on her own long experience in professional education training and practice Progress in Education R. Nata,2003 This series presents substantial results from around the globe in selected areas of educational research The field of education is consistently on the top of priority lists of every country in the world yet few educators are aware of the progress elsewhere Many techniques programs and methods are directly applicable across borders This series attempts to shed light on successes wherever they may occur in the hope that many wheels need not be reinvented again and again Contents Preface The Implications of the Expansion of China into the Global Educational Arena The Role of Technology in Overcoming the Digital Divide Past Research on Ghana s Education China ESL An Industry Run Amuck The Measurement of Quality at Universities Performance Based Pay for Teachers
