Needham Cust, 1901 Library of Universal Knowledge, 1880 Ways of Writing with Young Kids Sharon A. Edwards, Robert W. Maloy, Ruth-Ellen Verock-O'Loughlin, 2003

Ways of Writing with Young Kids presents ideas and strategies for teaching children how to write creatively in fiction, nonfiction, and poetry conventionally using standard spelling, punctuation, and sentence structures and confidently as they learn the roles and rules of written language. Ways of Writing with Young Kids is uniquely organized in twenty-three ways of writing that expand beyond one particular area. Giving readers a new perspective, the authors adhere to a unique and easy-to-follow system: The Five C's of Children's Writing Coaching: Creativity, Conventions, Choice, and Confidence. Written in an easy-to-read format, the book explains writing ideas and strategies clearly and concisely in an open-ended, easy-to-do, and engaging style that offers readers lots of flexibility of how to use the activities with their children. A Celebration of Literature and Response Marjorie R. Hancock, 2004

Reinforced by teachers' experiences in actual classrooms, this book provides a wealth of ideas for projects, readings, and response-based activities that will engage all learners in the joy of reading and responding to literature. It blends an appreciation of children's books across all genres with an emphasis on meaningful instructional strategies for literacy programs. Coverage of multicultural international literature helps illustrate the universality of themes in children's literature, providing a basis for establishing a library of literature that expresses the totality of children's experiences and speaks to children from all cultures and backgrounds. Coverage is based on Louise Rosenblatt's transactional theory of reader response and organized around five main celebrations that the author uses as a framework for uniting the findings of reader response theory with quality children's literature and exemplary reflective literature-based practice. Includes expanded coverage on multicultural international literature, including numerous examples of children's literature written and published in other countries. Includes extensive coverage of reader responses to literature: oral and written responses as well as those made through the visual arts. For teachers of Children's Literature. Introduces future teachers to the full range of children's responses to literature, encourages the use of a variety of strategies to elicit authentic, heartfelt, meaningful responses from pupils. An appendix on children's literature awards. Highlights exemplary children's literature across all genres, focuses students' attention on established standards, and offers guidance for choosing literature that meets such standards.
