TIP #1:

Mix up length of videos.

- Shorter videos (under 15-30 seconds) are great for getting your video in content and share quickly as building it up and, especially when you first start out. This will help with retention and getting more views.
- Longer videos are great for building trust, skills of knowledge

10 TIPS FOR BUILDING A LEARNING COMMUNITY ON

TikTok

Adapted from my E-Book
"Teaching on TikTok:
A Guide to Growing Your Own Learning Community"

about the app,
and
being on camera

- Do not change who you are or try to get followers on the app.
- People will respond to your unique voice, personality, and energy, and you don't have to be young, flashy, or "trendy" or bring people to your space.
- There is nothing too insignificant or small to teach to people. A successful teaching video can absolutely be a sentence long.
- Break larger concepts down into extremely simple or shortened clips. This will help you create more videos out of one general topic AND is a great teaching strategy.
- People learn better when information is chunked.
- It's also not Reels. TikTok as a space online has a distinct presence & feel that Reels lacks as it's part of a larger platform (IG).
- You can post multiple times a day.
- You can have "low-quality made" videos still do extremely well.
- Many "rules" of IG do not apply here.
