Artificial Intelligence in Education: The Power and Dangers of ChatGPT in the Classroom Amina Al-Marzouqi, Said A. Salloum, Mohammed Al-Saidat, Ahmed Aburayya, Babeet Gupta, 2024-03-29 This book aims to bring together a collection of innovative and cutting edge research that addresses the various challenges in the application and theoretical aspects of ChatGPT in education ChatGPT is a large language model developed by OpenAI that has the ability to generate human like text based on a prompt This has significant potential for use in the field of education as it allows for the creation of personalized interactive learning experiences automating assessment and grading and more In e learning ChatGPT is used to provide instant feedback and support to students as well as generate interactive conversations in the target language for language learning. It is also integrated with existing learning management systems and educational technology platforms to enhance their capabilities. In research, ChatGPT is used for natural language processing and sentiment analysis to gather insights on student learning experiences and educational outcomes. However, it is important to note that there are also ethical and privacy concerns that come with using language models like ChatGPT in education, such as data protection and the potential for bias. Overall, the use of ChatGPT in education has the potential to revolutionize the way we learn, teach, and access information. The book seeks to publish original manuscripts that cover a broad range of topics from the development of new chatbot technologies and their integration into the classroom to the examination of the ethical and pedagogical implications of these systems. By compiling the latest developments in the field and highlighting new areas for exploration, this book provides valuable insights and perspectives for researchers, educators, and practitioners working in the field of ChatGPT and education. The ultimate goal is to advance the understanding of ChatGPT and its role in education and to promote its effective and responsible use in the classroom and beyond.

Coaching for Multilingual Excellence

Margarita Espino Calderon, 2024-09-10. Be the instructional coach multilingual students and their teachers need. As the population of multilingual learners (MLs) in K-12 schools continues to grow, instructional coaches must support content teachers to recognize these students' assets and address their linguistic, cultural, academic, and social-emotional needs. Leveraging her decades of facilitating and coaching experience in the fields of language literacy and professional learning, Margarita Calderon meets this urgent need with practical, evidence-based strategies to leverage the power of coaching in support of ML excellence. Through the individual chapters dedicated to academic language reading and writing instruction and strategies to promote student discourse and social-emotional learning, embedded throughout this book will give coaches what they need to guide all teachers toward ML excellence. Additional features include: A step-by-step framework designed to help coaches promote teacher efficacy with MLs regardless of program setting or instructional approach; Clear guidance for how to structure coaching sessions with teachers driven by research-based approaches and observation and feedback protocols for accelerating student comprehension; Myth-busting facts about the do's and don'ts of effective coaching for ML success; Spotlights on the experiences of veteran coaches focusing on successes, challenges, and tips to remain resilient; Individual and group reflection questions and tools at the close of each chapter; Offering solutions to the challenges faced by MLs that content area teachers must be prepared to address. This book is a powerful tool coaches can use to move multilingual instruction beyond compliance to excellence.
