Cyber Security in the Age of Artificial Intelligence and Autonomous Weapons Mehmet Emin Erendor, 2024-11-19 Although recent advances in technology have made life easier for individuals societies and states they have also led to the emergence of new and different problems in the context of security In this context it does not seem possible to analyze the developments in the field of cyber security only with information theft or hacking especially in the age of artificial intelligence and autonomous weapons For this reason the main purpose of this book is to explain the phenomena from a different perspective by addressing artificial intelligence and autonomous weapons which remain in the background while focusing on cyber security By addressing these phenomena the book aims to make the study multidisciplinary and to include authors from different countries and different geographies The scope and content of the study differs significantly from other books in terms of the issues it addresses and deals with When we look at the main features of the study we can say the following Handles the concept of security within the framework of technological development Includes artificial intelligence and radicalization which has little place in the literature Evaluates the phenomenon of cyber espionage Provides an approach to future wars Examines the course of wars within the framework of the Clausewitz trilogy Explores ethical elements Addresses legal approaches In this context the book offers readers a hope as well as a warning about how technology can be used for the public good Individuals working in government law enforcement and technology companies can learn useful lessons from it

Shifting Journalism Boundaries in Zimbabwe Mphathisi Ndlovu, Lungile Tshuma, 2025-12-03 This book investigates the ways in which peripheral news actors in digital media are transforming journalism in Zimbabwe Journalism's boundaries have become blurred porous and fuzzy as non traditional news actors such as bloggers social media influencers citizen journalists start ups satirists comedians and fact checkers gain increasing influence in digital spaces As legacy news media attempt to ring fence the field journalism becomes both boundaried and boundless This book examines how peripheral journalistic practices are impacting Zimbabwe a semi authoritarian regime facing significant economic pressures Taking into account Zimbabwe's specific sociocultural political and economic context this book explores how political issues are mediated by periphery actors how they deal with challenges to their legitimacy and professionalism how sustainable their positions are and finally what the implications of shifting journalistic boundaries are for education and training institutions As the impact of digital technologies continues to rise this timely book will be an important read for researchers working on journalism media and communication and African studies
