Regulating Hate Speech Created by Generative AI Jay

Liebowitz, 2024-08-02 Regulating Hate Speech Created by Generative AI explores the new hybrid space of Human Machine Interaction HMI in which hate speech is represented and computed through algorithms and AI generative systems. The book is exploratory because there are still many problem solving challenges to be faced. It is also innovative because it is not assuming that solutions lie only in technological advancements but on a broader scale. In this sense large language models can and are being considered from a holistic view i.e. from the different dimensions and layers of regulatory and legal governance. Highlights of the book include Generative AI and social engines of hate. An introduction to generative Artificial Intelligence application trends and ethics. The mechanics and validation of generative AI outcomes. An evaluation of Generative AI for hate speech detection. Best practices and key considerations for AI regulation. Using GenAI capabilities for early detection of threats in the digital environment. This book is a hard look at ways to regulate generative AI to reduce online hate and secure justice in a digital environment. Featuring research and offering practical guidelines, the book examines guidelines for regulating generative AI models so they do not contribute to online hate disinformation and imagery.

How to Craft Autoethnography Marcus B. Weaver-Hightower, 2025-10-10

How to Craft Autoethnography is a comprehensive and engaging guide to the art and science of autoethnography, a qualitative research method that blends personal narrative with cultural analysis. Designed to be both practical and theoretically grounded, the book offers a structured yet flexible approach to developing good autoethnographic research. Throughout the book, Weaver-Hightower addresses the essential components of autoethnographic research, including when to use or not use the method, how to generate and analyze data, and how to assess quality and ethics in an autoethnography. The book carefully explores different forms of autoethnography: evocative, analytic, critical, and arts-based, providing readers with concrete examples and exemplars. Practical chapters detail strategies for planning studies, generating data through self-reflection and memory work, engaging with social theory, and writing in ways that resonate with readers both inside and outside academia. This book provides an indispensable resource for students, scholars, and practitioners seeking to deepen their understanding of autoethnography and to use it effectively in their research. The book also includes a range of pedagogical features such as learning objectives, exercises, and exemplars to support readers in developing their own autoethnographic projects.
