Teaching Migration in Literature, Film, and Media Masha Salazkina, Yumna Siddiqi, 2025-06-14. People migrate to seek opportunities to unite with family and to escape war, persecution, poverty, and environmental disasters. A phenomenon that has real lived effects on individuals and communities, migration also carries symbolic ideological significance. Its depiction in literature, film, and other media powerfully shapes worldviews, identities, attitudes toward migrants, and a political landscape that is both local and global. It is imperative then to connect the disciplinary and theoretical tools we have for understanding migration and to put them in conversation with students' experiences. Featuring a wide range of classroom approaches, this volume brings together topics that are often taught separately, including tourism, slavery, drug cartels, race, whiteness, settler colonialism, the Arab Spring, assimilation, and disability. Readers are introduced to terminology and legal frameworks and to theories of migration in relation to Black studies, ethnic studies, Asian American studies, Latinx studies, border studies, postcolonial studies, and Indigenous studies. 10 Profitable Ideas for YouTube Shorts, empreender, 2023-02-13. Kunnie, 2025-12-02. With a looming climate collapse and chemical geo-engineering poisoning of the Earth's air and water, humanity faces a battery of lethal crises: undermined food production, ecocide, accelerated desertification, and drought; industrialist pillaging of the Earth through oil drilling and mining; and many other such assaults on life itself. Ever-growing crises of unsustainability in the 21st century point to the inevitable collapse of capitalism. This book investigates these crises and proposes a reclamation of Indigenous languages as part of cultural, educational, and societal decolonization. By restoring Indigenous ancestral cultural wisdom and practice toward paths of wholeness and sustainability, society can recover and live simply so that all forms of life may survive. Diversity and Society Joseph F.
