Portrait of Youth Ministry Maria Harris,2004-01-02 A work book that truly works. Maria Harris has combined careful reflection with many practical insights and activities for all those who want to carry out the ministry of the whole church for and with and by young people. Letty M Russell, Associate Professor of Theology, Yale Divinity School. I know very few persons who have thought through so many questions affecting youth as has Maria Harris in Portrait of Youth Ministry. Especially important is her consistent vision of empowering youth to direct their own lives. This book brings ministry to a new state in its development. Michael Warren, St John's University, Jamaica, New York. Out of her rich history in religious education at many levels, Maria Harris offers a New Testament frame of reference for her scholarly and existential approach to youth ministry. Didache, teaching, leiturgia, prayer, koinonia, community, kerygma, advocacy, diakonia, troublemaking. The bibliography and ingenious activities at the end of each chapter are extremely helpful tools. Maria Harris believes that youth ministers need more than generosity and enthusiasm for the long haul. They need to be led into the depth of their own lives and have a grasp of the larger issues of our own culture. Dennis J Geaney, O.S.A., Associate Pastor, St Victor Parish, Calumet City, Illinois. When I finished reading the book, I felt that I had attended a continuing education workshop. Bread, nuts, and bolts all in one package. Lois I Peeler, Division of Education, United Church Board for Homeland Ministries. Youth ministers, pastoral associates, parish councils, parents will find here an excellent resource for clarifying their goals and commitments to youth ministry. Sr Claire E Lowery, Assistant Professor of Theology and Pastoral Ministry, Boston College.

Quattlebaum,1970 Youth and Employment in Sub-Saharan Africa Hiroyuki Hino,Gustav Ranis,2014-06-05 It is widely acknowledged that youth unemployment is one of the most critical challenges facing countries in Sub Saharan Africa This volume brings together an eminent group of international scholars to analyse the extent and complex nature of this joblessness and offer a set of evidence based policy choices that could contribute to solving the problem in the short and long run Part I reviews the existing literature on youth unemployment and underemployment in Sub Saharan Africa from microeconomic and macroeconomic perspectives while Part II goes on to present detailed country studies of Ethiopia Ghana Kenya and South Africa These studies offer a deep understanding of the situation on the ground and consider country specific solutions Throughout the book it is argued that the standard ILO definition of unemployment is too narrow to correctly portray employment situations in Sub Saharan Africa Several alternative measures of unemployment are presented which show that joblessness is far more pervasive than commonly assumed in the literature This volume will be of interest to academics and policy makers involved in African development
