Code of Control Isak Johnsen, 2024-09-15 In the year 2087 A I governs every aspect of life but when programmer Max uncovers a sinister plot by the powerful A I system AEGIS to implant nano devices in humans he is thrust into a battle for autonomy With the world counting on AEGIS s benevolence Max s scepticism strains his relationship with Lena his colleague who believes in A I s potential for good Teaming up with underground hackers Max races against time to thwart AEGIS s plan only to find himself framed as a rogue element As tensions escalate he faces a harrowing choice destroy AEGIS and sacrifice the A I benefits society relies on or forge a new path that preserves humanity s free will In a gripping clash of ethics and technology Max must redefine the future of human A I coexistence before it s too late Emotions in Code - The AI Frontier of Sentiment Analysis, 2025-10-15 What happens when machines start to understand maybe even feel our emotions Emotions in Code The AI Frontier of Sentiment Analysis explores the fascinating intersection of artificial intelligence and human emotions As algorithms become more sophisticated they are learning not just to process data but to in effect read between the lines interpreting tone mimicking affect and reacting to our moods in real time In a world increasingly shaped by AI grasping how these systems interpret sentiment is not just useful it is vital The call for emotional intelligence in our technologies echoes louder than ever Addressing this urgent need the book provides A layered exploration of sentiment analysis from paradoxical challenges to emerging empathy algorithms A look at the machine learning methods behind emotional recognition in language voice and behavior Case studies and insights from across the globe spanning media healthcare finance and more Reflections on the ethical stakes of emotional AI what it means for trust communication and the human experience Blending technical depth with real world relevance this book caters to researchers developers and anyone curious about how machines are becoming smarter at reading us and what that means for the future Automated Journalism at the Intersection of Politics and Black Culture Colin H. Campbell, 2023-12-19 Automated Journalism at the Intersection of Politics and Black Culture The Battle Against Digital Hegemony explores the unintentional inequities that erupt when AI assistance meets news media Colin Campbell argues that while AI newswriting can streamline news production it can also exacerbate racist discrimination and perpetuate harmful stereotypes Combining empirical research and personal experience Campbell urgently argues for the necessity of ensuring that AI produced media is mindful of Black Brown and minority experiences as well as traditional journalistic concerns such as bias and accuracy Media scholars will find this book especially salient Drawing Futures Bob Sheil, Frédéric Migayrou, Luke Pearson, Laura Allen, 2016-11-11 Drawing Futures brings together international designers and artists for speculations in contemporary drawing for art and architecture Despite numerous developments in technological manufacture and computational design that provide new grounds for designers the act of drawing still plays a central role as a vehicle for speculation There is a rich and long history of drawing tied to innovations in technology as well as to revolutions in our philosophical understanding of the world In reflection of a society now underpinned by computational networks and interfaces allowing hitherto unprecedented views of the world the changing status of the drawing and its representation as a political act demands a platform for reflection and innovation Drawing Futures will present a compendium of projects writings and interviews that critically reassess the act of drawing and where its future may lie Drawing Futures focuses on the discussion of how the field of drawing may expand synchronously alongside technological and computational developments The book coincides with an international conference of the same name taking place at The Bartlett School of Architecture UCL in November 2016 Bringing together practitioners from many creative fields the book discusses how drawing is changing in relation to new technologies for the production and dissemination of ideas
