Marchewka, 2016-02-08 The 5th Edition of Jack Marchewka s Information Technology Project Management focuses on how to create measurable organizational value MOV through IT projects The author uses the concept of MOV combined with his own research to create a solid foundation for making decisions throughout the project s lifecycle The book s integration of project management and IT concepts provides students with the tools and techniques they need to develop in this field The Blogging Church Brian Bailey, 2011-01-07 The Blogging Church offers church leaders a field manual for using the social phenomenon of blogs to connect people and build communities in a whole new way Inside you will find the why what and how of blogging in the local church Filled with illustrative examples and practical advice the authors answer key questions learned on the frontlines of ministry Is blogging a tool or a toy What problems will blogging solve How does it benefit ministry How do I build a great blog and Who am I blogging for The Blogging Church is a handbook that will inspire and equip you to join the conversation The book includes contributions from five of the most popular bloggers in the world Robert Scoble Dave Winer Kathy Sierra Guy Kawasaki and Merlin Mann as well as interviews with blogging pastors such as Mark Driscoll Craig Groeschel Tony Morgan Perry Noble Greg Surratt Mark Batterson and many more The New Normal

Denise Tillery, Ed Nagelhout, 2016-12-05 As colleges and universities across the country continue to deal with regular decreases in state funding technical communication programs in particular are being forced to do more with less As budget cuts become the new normal the long term health of technical communication depends on our ability to evolve and adapt to an array of internal external and technological pressures The New Normal Pressures on Technical Communication Programs in the Age of Austerity explores the ways technical communication programs are responding to conditions of economic austerity and investigates how smaller programs or programs situated in smaller institutions use increasingly limited resources to meet the challenges of increased student demand the responsibilities of teaching service courses effectively the technological demands for online education and the constant pressure to prepare our students appropriately for the ever changing needs of the job market in technical communication More specifically the contributors to this collection are overtly conscious of the marginalized peripheral status of technical communication programs within both small and large institutions This awareness allows them to articulate specific ways that austerity has had a direct and local effect on a particular technical communication program and to describe short and long term strategies for creating sustainable futures for a technical communication program despite cuts and marginalization Library & Information Science Abstracts ,2008
