Personal Concierge Service, 2012-07-15 Personal assistants aren't just for the rich and famous anymore. More and more people are willing to pay good money for personal services that help make their lives easier. Our guide will show you how to get started in two high paying and exciting personal service businesses: personal concierge and personal shopper. As a personal concierge, clients will hire you to plan trips, make dinner reservations, get concert tickets, pick up dry cleaning and myriad other errands they simply don't have time to do themselves. Love to shop? Become a personal shopper and get paid to shop for gifts, fashions and just about anything else people buy. Some personal shoppers even act as wardrobe consultants to celebrities.

Startup is easy. Overhead is low. And you can even work out of your home. All you need to get started is a phone, some business cards and this essential guide. It teaches you everything you need to know including:

- Making the right contacts to find great business and individual clients.
- Using the internet to make your job easier.
- Building loyalty among clients and getting glowing referrals.
- Choosing what services to offer and setting fees.
- What it takes to gain the competitive edge.

Whichever path you choose, our guide is your key to success. You'll learn everything you need to know to start and run your new business.

Sample forms, additional resources, checklists and work sheets guide you through every step of the startup process, putting you on the road to success in your own concierge business today.

The First Three Years In addition to industry specific information, you'll also tap into Entrepreneur's more than 30 years of small business expertise via the 2nd section of the guide.
