of global citizenry have become prime areas of research amongst the digital education landscape. Now more than ever it is essential to look at virtual learning environments and how they can be used to prepare students and employees for the opportunities and challenges of a global digital workplace. Developments in Virtual Learning Environments and the Global Workplace provides readers with a rationale and tool kit for facilitating virtual learning in a wide variety of contexts in response to the opportunities and challenges presented by the digital global workplace. This book covers virtual learning practices, the value of virtual learning for professionals and employers, and the best practices in online learning in different settings. Additionally, the chapters dive into the future perspectives and trends within virtual learning environments and the creation/evaluation of virtual learning strategies. These insights range from diverse countries, education levels, industry sectors, and academic disciplines, making this book a comprehensive research tool. This book will greatly benefit e-learning and instructional designers, university senior managers, university staff responsible for mobility and exchange, researchers, professionals responsible for organizational development and further education, human resource directors, global company executives, managers, practitioners, stakeholders, academicians, and students looking for information on how virtual learning environments are preparing students for the global workplace.

Five Generations and Only One Workforce: How Successful Businesses Are Managing a Multigenerational Workforce Management Association, Information Resources, 2019-07-05. Due to more individuals retiring at a later age today's workforce consists of five generations of workers with various educational backgrounds, ages, experience levels, and skills. Managers and business owners are now faced with the challenge of providing a work space that encourages the new ideals of millennials while also balancing the needs and desires of older employees. As such, new methods and strategies of working and managing efficiency in the workplace need to be explored. Five Generations and Only One Workforce: How Successful Businesses Are Managing a Multigenerational Workforce examines pivotal issues surrounding generational differences and management in the workplace, including challenges in employee engagement, project management, and training. Highlighting a range of topics such as generation gap, workforce diversity, and senior workers, this publication is an ideal reference source for business practitioners, managers, executives, professionals, human resources managers, and researchers who are seeking more information on managing a multigenerational workforce.

Message Received: 7 Steps to Break Down Communication Barriers at Work Mary E. Donohue, 2020-09-29. The action plan you need to ensure everyone's understood digitally and across generations. According to social scientist and award-winning CEO Dr. Mary Donohue, we communicate ineffectively at work a staggering 80% of the time. From the tone of an email to the almost-but-not-quite eye contact of a video conference app, today's tech has increased the speed and scope of our communications as well as the opportunities to misunderstand each other completely. This lack of effective communication is a leading cause of workplace stress. In this widely anticipated and deeply researched book, Dr. Donohue, a victim of workplace stress herself, lays out a seven-step solution to give you the tools you need.

to make communication a cure for workplace stress not a cause even especially when you're working with a generationally diverse team Discover what's at the root of the problem from misunderstood emails and misinterpreted texts to misconstrued social media posts and missed social cues on Zoom and learn how to respond to different communication preferences now Through helpful charts case studies evidence backed research and more you'll walk away with the tools you need to ensure everyone on your team yourself included is heard and understood so there's less time clarifying and more time for everyone to be their best most productive selves
