Education and Creative Aging Melanie Davenport, Linda Hoepfner Poling, Rébecca Bourgault, Marjorie Cohee Manifold, 2024-04-01 This text explores how art education can meaningfully address the needs of older adults as learners, makers and teachers of art in formal and informal settings. It combines perspectives of museum educators, teacher preparation professors, art therapists, teaching artists, and older artists on what is meant by Creative Aging and the ways art education can support the health and well-being of this population. Most importantly, the book discusses what the field of art education can gain from older adult learners and creators. Chapters are organized into five sections: Creatively Aging Meeting Older Adults, Unique Needs, Intergenerational Art Education, Engaging Older Adults With Artworks and Objects, and In Our Own Voices: Older Adults as Learners, Makers, and Teachers. Within each section, contributors investigate themes critical to art education within aging populations, such as memory loss, disability, coping with life transitions, lifelong learning, intergenerational relationships, and personal narrative. The final section focuses on accounts from older adult artists, educators offering insights and proposing new directions for growing older creatively. Though ideal for art education faculty and students in graduate and undergraduate settings, as well as art education scholars and those teaching in multigenerational programs within community settings, this book is an expansive resource for any artist, student, or scholar interested in the links among health, well-being, and arts participation for older adults. Anderson, 2021-08-15 YouTube Shorts has just arisen, jumping into the limelight. Now, adding to the massive popularity of the short clips trend, YouTube has created its own version: YouTube Shorts. Are you looking to utilize YouTube's new Shorts video option? You should be! The short-form video format helped numerous small creators break out and reach a massive audience, similar to those already popular short-form content platforms such as Snapchat Stories, TikTok, and Instagram Reels. YouTube Shorts can be the golden ticket to creator success. With the video craze hitting through the roof, the market presents you with a fantastic opportunity to get started with YouTube Shorts and gain expertise on it. With over 15 billion daily views on videos on the web, the new YouTube Shorts will become a goldmine for businesses and brands to reach wider audiences and grow globally. More than ever before, internet users are looking for quickly consumable information and entertainment that can be accessed across various devices. Now, the creators who create these short videos on YouTube are soon to be rewarded for their work. YouTube has monetized Shorts recently. With hundreds of thousands of creators and artists already on YouTube creating daily, a backlog of millions of videos with 500 hours of new content being uploaded by the minute, there's plenty of reason to believe Shorts has the headstart its competitors never did. There is no doubt that consumer behaviour is shifting towards convenient content experiences. YouTube Shorts provide a strong, well-established platform with vast audiences and an accessible content creation tool. YouTube seems to have blended both long and short-form content so that brands can utilise it effectively. With thousands of eCommerce websites available on the net, you'll want to have some
