Rochlen, Fredric E. Rabinowitz, 2013-11-07 Breaking Barriers in Counseling Men is a unique collection of personal and engaging contributions from nationally recognized scholars and clinicians with expertise in treating men The editors have selected men s clinicians who address areas as diverse as sexual dysfunction male bonding over sports father son relationships and counseling men in the military Featuring a mix of clinical tips personal anecdotes and theoretical reframing this book takes clinicians invested in these issues to the next level breaking down barriers to connecting with men and getting them the help that is so often needed Black Ops Advertising Mara Einstein, 2016-09-01 From Facebook to Talking Points Memo to the New York Times often what looks like fact based journalism is not It s advertising Not only are ads indistinguishable from reporting the Internet we rely on for news opinions and even impartial sales content is now the ultimate corporate tool Reader beware content without a corporate sponsor lurking behind it is rare indeed Black Ops Advertising dissects this rapid rise of sponsored content a strategy whereby advertisers have become publishers and publishers create advertising all under the guise of unbiased information Covert selling mostly in the form of native advertising and content marketing has so blurred the lines between editorial content and marketing message that it is next to impossible to tell real news from paid endorsements In the 21st century instead of telling us to buy buy BUY marketers engage with us so that we share share SHARE the ultimate subtle sell Why should this concern us Because personal data personal relationships and our very identities are being repackaged in pursuit of corporate profits Because tracking and manipulation of data make likes and tweets and followers the currency of importance rather than scientific achievement or artistic talent or information the electorate needs to fully function in a democracy And because we are being manipulated to spend time with technology to interact with friends to always be on even when it is to our physical and mental detriment Influencer Marketing Joyce Costello, Sevil Yesiloglu, 2020-11-29 This is one of the first textbooks to explore the phenomenon of Influencer Marketing and how it fits within marketing communications to build brands and their communities Influencers those who can impact a brand s marketing and advertising strategies as well as build brand communities are making extensive use of the new digital and traditional communications platforms Influencers offer brands the ability to deliver the right communication and marketing messages to a specific target audience Across four core sections this book brings together the key theory and practical implications of this new marketing tool how it works as part of communications campaigns including how to select the right influencers and measure their success the dark side of influencer marketing and the legal and ethical framework With contributions from authors across the globe each chapter is also accompanied by an in depth case study from the Kardashians to Joe Wicks that demonstrates how the theory translates to practice Influencer Marketing is important reading for advanced postgraduate and executive education students of Marketing Digital Marketing Marketing Communications Brand Management and Public Relations With its accessible style and practical content it is also highly valuable for Marketing Communications Branding and PR specialists
