More Than Words John Warner, 2025-02-04 A veteran writing teacher makes a moving Rick Wormeli argument that writing is a form of thinking and feeling and shows why it can't be replaced by AI In the age of artificial intelligence drafting an essay is as simple as typing a prompt and pressing enter What does this mean for the art of writing According to longtime writing teacher John Warner not very much More Than Words argues that generative AI programs like ChatGPT not only can kill the student essay but should since these assignments don't challenge students to do the real work of writing To Warner writing is thinking discovering your ideas while trying to capture them on a page and feeling grappling with what it fundamentally means to be human The fact that we ask students to complete so many assignments that a machine could do is a sign that something has gone very wrong with writing instruction More Than Words calls for us to use AI as an opportunity to reckon with how we work with words and how all of us should rethink our relationship with writing

Teaching AI in Film and Media Studies Bridget Kies, Mel Stanfill, 2025-11-25 A timely intervention into the role of AI in teaching film and media studies this book offers insights into how scholars and educators can adapt their approaches in the face of emerging technologies Exploring the intersection of generative AI with film and media studies this book highlights the importance of addressing AI in the classroom It advocates for teaching AI literacy as an extension of media literacy encouraging students to understand AI's biases and limitations It explores the impact of AI on a variety of widely taught topics including copyright and remix culture the concept of authorship and collaborative storytelling film and media production its potential in relation to speculative history and archival research labor concerns in the media industries as well as impacts on fans and audiences The book considers how AI can foster creativity and critical thinking in students as they prepare for future roles in evolving media industries Each chapter features suggested readings activities and assignments that can be implemented in and out of class to reinforce and cultivate AI literacy and proficiency This book is an essential resource for faculty members in Film and Media Studies who want to know more about how to engage with generative AI tools in their teaching as well as graduate students taking pedagogy focused courses

Media Literacy in Action Renee Hobbs, 2024-10-14 There's never been a more important time for students to develop media literacy competencies When students ask critical questions about the media they consume they develop fundamental knowledge and critical thinking skills that prepare them for life work and meaningful citizenship Media Literacy in Action

addresses learners who are simultaneously active as both creators and consumers of media messages At the same time the book recognizes that everyone is vulnerable to media influence because of our dependence on the instant gratification and feelings of connectedness that digital platforms provide To thrive in a media saturated society people need to ask critical questions about what we watch see listen to read and use This book gives students those tools Key features of the second edition Critical examination of AI technologies algorithmic personalization data privacy and surveillance and the increased global regulation of digital platforms Attention to media literacy for empowerment and protection Inquiry oriented approach to learning that cultivates intellectual curiosity and creative expression Full color presentation with figures and photos to increase student engagement Each chapter includes Media Literacy Trailblazers Profiles of key thinkers and their theories connect students with the discipline of media literacy Media Literacy DISCOURSE NEW Visual representations of media literacy theoretical principles help learners internalize the practice of asking critical questions as they respond to specific media examples Learning in Action NEW Summary and vocabulary sections combine with Analyze Create Reflect and Act activities to empower students to apply ideas from each chapter Supplemental Materials available at www.mlaction.com Students can review key ideas learn about more Media Literacy Trailblazers and watch videos aligned with each chapter Instructors can access a Teacher's Guide of best practices in class activities homework and projects Also available are chapter summaries lecture slides YouTube playlists and test materials
