Virtual Teams Across National Borders Marin A. Marinov, 2023-11-03 Virtual teams can be traced back to the 1990s with the debauched development of communication technologies, as well as the fast extension of the internet. Virtual teams possess unique features, allowing them to combine cultural multiplicity, specific tasks, physical remoteness of team members, continuous distant communication, critical interdependence of tasks, leadership cohesion, empowerment, confidence, virtuality, special trust creation, and trust building. For a successful functioning of present-day organisations, they need to employ geographically dispersed labour force. Creating virtual teams functioning across national borders, organisations secure the most competent talent available worldwide. Employing the best available know-how, virtual teams apply the knowledge of experts from various cultures, having diverse capabilities, as well as varied perceptions on dealing with multiple organisational challenges from strategic perspectives. Compositions of virtual teams operating across national borders alter depending on types of industry, organisation, and organisational unit. International virtual teams functioning across national borders perform from practically everywhere all over the world if there is a secure and constant internet connection. This book is dedicated to offering a comprehensive outlook and analysis of the theoretical and practical aspects related to the creation of virtual teams across national borders, as well as the specifics of their implementation.
