A High School English Teacher's Guide to Writing Memoir Coley Conter, Mary Ehrenworth, Lauren Gould, 2025-12-31 A High School English Teacher's Guide to Writing Memoir is more than a set of writing lessons it's a call to see your students and help them see themselves through the power of story With more than forty flexible lessons and a robust suite of downloadable charts tools mentor texts and AI recommendations this guide helps you teach memoir as courageous storytelling and self discovery Students will write honestly revise bravely and publish in formats that matter to them from anthologies to picture books to multimodal memoirs Grounded in research and practical classroom strategies this guidebook walks teachers through each stage of memoir writing from generating story ideas and experimenting with structure to revising with intention and experimenting with conventions Along the way it centers mentor text inquiry writing partnerships and author's craft It also embraces new technologies including AI as part of the writing process so your students will emerge confident and adept as digital writers Whether your students are excavating memories wrestling with identity or discovering their voice for the first time this guide helps them transform raw moments into powerful memoirs And for you the teacher it brings a new kind of classroom intimacy a deepened community and the reminder that storytelling is the heart of being known Let memoir become a source of meaning connection and growth for every writer in your room

Leveraging AI for Human-Centered Learning Marlee S. Bunch, Brittany R. Collins, 2025-07-22 Leveraging AI for Human Centered Learning provides intentional approaches to the integration of artificial intelligence tools into middle and high school classrooms specifically to foster equity and social emotional wellbeing The overlap of AI with today's schools poses pivotal questions about ethics morality inclusion and human learning at a time when students are already reckoning with public health crises systemic injustice and other connected challenges This book helps teachers examine the pros and cons of artificial intelligence as used by both educators and students as well as its implications for meaningful culturally responsive teaching and social emotional learning efforts Featuring activities lesson plans and discussion and writing prompts for use with adolescent learners each chapter offers concrete pedagogical approaches and instructional innovations that align technological changes with learning objectives in ways that advance rather than replace or neutralize attention to equity and well being

Rethinking Language Education in the Age of Generative AI Zhongfeng Tian, Chaoran Wang, 2025-05-20 Rethinking Language Education in the Age of Generative AI bridges the gap between theory research and practice in AI and language education Through conceptual pieces empirical studies and practical applications this book provides critical insights and implications for reimagining language education in the age of generative AI The contributors explore a wide range of issues reflections and innovations in AI and language education across diverse contexts including English as a Second Language ESL English as a Foreign Language EFL foreign language learning postsecondary pathways programs for international students and language teacher education programs Topics examined include critical AI literacy GenAI informed second language teaching and assessment teacher and student perceptions tool development for language learning as well as ethical considerations policies and guidelines The book incorporates interdisciplinary perspectives such as L2 foreign language studies education and applied linguistics as well as global insights from countries like the United States Canada South Korea Thailand Indonesia and the Philippines This book is essential for students and researchers seeking to leverage AI to enhance language teaching and learning in innovative critical ethical and responsible ways AI in Social Studies Education Christopher H. Clark, Cathryn van Kessel, 2025 The introduction of widely available generative AI tools has caused a frenzy of both positive and negative reactions Between utopian visions and apocalyptic predictions of AI's impact on education there is a need to thoughtfully consider what education in the age of AI can and should look like This volume focuses on the implications of AI technology for teachers in K 12 and university settings providing a careful look at its affordances and drawbacks for social studies curriculum and teaching Scholars specializing in the field of social studies education provide information and practical ideas for teaching with current technology alongside frameworks for thinking about future iterations of AI This book fills a critical need especially among educators to consider the current and potential future impacts of AI while avoiding the traps of alarmism or techno utopianism Whether skeptical or enthusiastic about AI every social studies educator will find something useful to their practice in this book Book Features First ever compilation of AI considerations and strategies in the context of social studies education Nontechnical explanations of what AI can do and not do in practical educational contexts to enable educators to approach its use with careful judgment Advice for educators to help them assess future iterations of AI technology Critical considerations of AI across multiple contexts e g ethics equity multilingual learners cybersecurity Work from leaders in technology and social studies education across Canada and the United States Contributors Erin C Adams Curby Alexander Elizabeth Barrow Daphanie Bibbs Ariel Cornett Matthew Cress Kevin Donley Leslie Smith Duss Lindsay Gibson Thomas C Hammond Marie Heath Dawnavyn James Patrick Kane Dan Krutka Liran Ma Tim Monreal Rachel Moylan Julie Oltman Zilong Pan Michelle Reidel Elizabeth C Reynolds Tina C Soliday Vi Trinh Bretton A Varga Proceedings of the International Conference on AI Research Carlos Goncalves, Jose Carlos Dias Rouco, Revolutionizing English Education Clarice M. Moran, 2024-04-30 Artificial Intelligence or AI has seemingly burst into public consciousness with sudden vigor Previously relinquished to computer science journals it erupted as the unrelenting topic of public media with most of the furor surrounding chatbots like ChatGPT Although many educators began worrying about the implications of AI in student learning and creative activity this book will demonstrate that AI can be harnessed as a source of inspiration and meaningful instruction With an emphasis on useful classroom strategies as well as a consideration of the ethics of AI this book seeks to start a conversation in this nascent area of research and practice The primary focus is on the use of AI in the secondary English classroom but educators in other disciplines will find plenty of ideas and information Impact of Emergent Technologies on Writing Centers and Pedagogy Wang, Tingjia, 2025-05-08

Emergent technologies reshape the landscape of writing centers and pedagogical practices in higher education From AI driven writing tools to collaborative platforms and digital feedback systems these innovations transform how writing support is delivered accessed and understood Writing centers are no longer confined to physical spaces instead they evolve into hybrid or fully online environments that accommodate diverse learner needs and preferences Pedagogically instructors and tutors rethink traditional approaches integrating digital literacy multimodal composition and ethical engagement with technology into their curricula As a result emergent technologies enhance accessibility and efficiency while challenging educators to critically examine the role of technology in writing instruction and the student learning experience Impact of Emergent Technologies on Writing Centers and Pedagogy explores the impact of emergent technologies on writing centers and writing pedagogy in higher education worldwide It examines the themes concerns and challenges emerging from different writing centers and their culturally and linguistically diverse responses towards the latest transformations in writing pedagogy This book covers topics such as digital literacy policymaking and writing programs and is a useful resource for educators computer engineers academicians researchers and scientists
