Writing in English for Internationalized Higher Education Carolina Pelaez-Morales, Kyle McIntosh, 2025-07-18 This book is a user-friendly resource designed to help teachers meet the needs of linguistically, culturally, geographically, and educationally diverse students in the contemporary college composition classroom. Pelaez-Morales and McIntosh acknowledge that writing must be understood in context and address practical ways to support all writers of English regardless of background. Chapters cover rhetorical strategies, genre analysis, feedback, and assessment. Drawing from a number of theoretical frameworks including intercultural rhetoric, L2 writing, translingualism, and World Englishes, the book's practical classroom-based suggestions will prepare pre- and in-service teachers to work in internationalized higher education contexts and to accommodate a range of knowledge and skill levels

The Lecturer's Toolkit Phil Race, Sally Brown, 2025-04-16 With a focus on practical, implementable strategies to enhance learning experiences, the extensively updated sixth edition of The Lecturer's Toolkit is an essential guide for those new to teaching in Higher Education as well as a companion to improve the practice of more experienced teachers. Centred around the Race model of learning, which proposes a pragmatic exploration of how students learn, it offers research-informed practical tips and advice with question prompts to cement knowledge, key tips to enhance best practice, and chapter outcomes to help shape learning. This edition has been fully updated to recognise changing approaches to higher education learning, including online and distance learning, and consideration of how AI and Large Language Models are impacting on ways of teaching and assessing students. Covering all of the need-to-know information that is essential to thrive in tertiary teaching environments, this book includes information on: Understanding how students really learn, including online and hybrid learning; Ways to increase student motivation and engagement; Ways to design assessments that are both authentic and compassionate; Pragmatic and positive ways of using feedback to enhance learning; Practical advice on large and small group teaching; Advice on looking after yourself in stressful working contexts; Some thoughts on where higher education is moving next. This accessible toolkit is based on decades of experience of higher education and is written with authority and clarity in a jargon-free style. An invaluable guide, it is a must-read for every higher education professional
