SEKIZIYIVU,2025-06-24 In a world where burnout is common and disengagement is rising one leadership trait is proving more powerful than all the rest empathy The Empathic Edge is a breakthrough guide for leaders who understand that success isn't just about driving results it's about building resilient inspired and emotionally connected teams This book explores how emotional intelligence can elevate your leadership from transactional to transformational creating a workplace where people don't just perform they flourish With a focus on real world leadership challenges it offers powerful insights into leading with self awareness navigating conflict with compassion and fostering trust that fuels innovation and loyalty You'll learn how to listen with presence respond with intention and create cultures where people feel seen heard and valued Whether you're a manager executive or entrepreneur The Empathic Edge will help you unlock the human side of leadership and build teams that don't just survive change but thrive because of it Because in the new era of leadership empathy isn't soft It's your sharpest competitive edge Global Voice #21 Council on Business & Society, Welcome to Global Voice magazine 21 Out of the Tin Can This spring issue of the Council on Business Society's quarterly magazine contains 96 pages of research and opinion based articles featured in two sections Business Society and Leadership Management We're delighted to include a special double page dedicated to two new CoBS Deans Dean Lee Newman and Dean Yu Sakasume having respectively taken up their functions at leading member institutions IE Business School Spain and Keio Business School Japan This issue's Editorial also features a spotlight on the unique value case studies bring to the learning experience co-authored by Richard McCracken Director of The Case Centre the world's leading independent home of the case method and Prof Adrian Zicari of the Council on Business Society A wry and playful glance at business buzz words and maybe even the state of our hectic modern society is included in our double page cartoon penned by Tom Gamble of the CoBS and illustrated by Matthieu Anziani of ESSEC Business School And as usual hats off to the superb Global Voice graphic design by CoBS Head of Design M lissa Guillou Faculty practitioner and student articles provide the bread and butter of this issue with topics covering big data and customer value how to manage remote working designing mentorship programmes TechForGood greening up supply chains with circular economy strategy non financial social and environmental disclosure and a spotlight on smart cities in Japan among others And lastly you may ask why this issue carries the subtitle Out of the Tin Can The temptation is to say that it's up to you to interpret it for there are many interpretations possible Some of these might point to the David Bowie classic Space Oddity and the fact that at last many of us in our societies are once again able to step out of the confinement imposed by the pandemic to breath freely again Another interpretation hand in hand with the snappy front cover image might refer to Andy Warhol's iconic pop art consumerism or simply the tastiness of the contents the tin cans hold a little like the insights in this magazine if I dare say And lastly the shades of green to the cans give the message that our consuming society might well contain a new and more responsible sustainable taste to it In any case we hope you download this Global Voice 21 issue open it up and consume its insights with immoderation Enjoy your reading

The Social and Economic Impact of Covid-19: Rapid Transformation of the 21st Century Society Marcel Mečiar,Hamza Şimşek,2021-05-05 The contributions in this book demonstrate that the Covid 19 pandemic has led to negative socioeconomic impacts put a tremendous strain on social institutions in many countries and changed the lives of people around the world Society economy business companies management structures of companies consumption habits of society education and health sector have been significantly affected by the Covid 19 pandemic Some of these effects are thought to be permanent even after the pandemic subsides It is obvious that the process of digitization will continue in making a consumer s life more comfortable and safer Some researchers estimate that approximately 60 percent of companies plan to let their employees continue working remotely from home offices in the post pandemic period Many experts emphasize that online shopping which increased rapidly during the pandemic period will continue to dominate after the pandemic Therefore the social effects of the Covid 19 pandemic will be the subject of many academic studies today and in the future
