The Online Teaching Survival Guide Judith V. Boettcher, Rita-Marie Conrad, 2010-05-13 The Online Teaching Survival Guide offers faculty a wide array of theory based techniques designed for online teaching and technology enhanced courses Written by two pioneers in distance education this guidebook presents practical instructional strategies spread out over a four phase timeline that covers the lifespan of a course The book includes information on a range of topics such as course management social presence community building and assessment Based on traditional pedagogical theory The Online Teaching Survival Guide integrates the latest research in cognitive processing and learning outcomes Faculty with little knowledge of educational theory and those well versed in pedagogy will find this resource essential for developing their online teaching skills Praise for The Online Teaching Survival Guide At a time when resources for training faculty to teach online are scarce Judith Boettcher and Rita Marie Conrad have presented a must read for all instructors new to online teaching By tying best practices to the natural rhythms of a course as it unfolds instructors will know what to do when and what to expect The book is a life raft in what can be perceived as turbulent and uncharted waters Rena M Palloff and Keith Pratt program directors and faculty Teaching in the Virtual Classroom Program Fielding Graduate University Developed from years of experience supporting online faculty Judith Boettcher and Rita Marie Conrad s book provides practical tips and checklists that should especially help those new to online teaching hit the ground running Karen Swan Stukel Distinguished Professor of Educational Leadership University of Illinois Springfield This book blends a fine synthesis of research findings with plenty of practical advice This book should be especially valuable for faculty teaching their first or second course online But any instructor no matter how experienced is likely to find valuable insights and techniques Stephen C Ehrmann director Flashlight Program for the Study and Improvement of Educational Uses of Technology vice president The Teaching Learning and Technology Group

IPractice Jennifer Mishra, Barbara Fast (Pianist), 2019 This book provides new practical tools that bridge the gap between familiar easy to use technology and musical practice to enhance musicianship and motivate students Authors Jennifer Mishra and Barbara Fast provide ideas for use with students of all levels from beginners to musicians performing advanced repertoire This book is written for teachers both studio teachers and ensemble directors but can be read by performers to help give new guidance to their own practice sessions Some strategies in this book would not have been possible without advances in technology others expand tried and true practice strategies with the use of technology Most of the technologies discussed are free or inexpensive and don t require extensive specialist equipment or learning Rather than replacing quality practice strategies technology brings new tools to the practicing tool box The strategies lay the foundation for how technology can be used in the practice room and are intended to spark creativity The book encourages teachers and students to vary the integration of practice strategies with technology in personal ways to fit their own studios or practice routines This book is all about exploring our musical practice through technology The ideas in this book will invigorate your musical practice and lead to even more creativity between you and your students
