Jobs for Youth/Des emplois pour les jeunes: Australia 2009 OECD,2009-04-20 This report contains for Australia a survey of the main barriers to employment for young people an assessment of the adequacy and effectiveness of existing measures to improve the transition from school to work as well as a set of policy recommendations for further action Government Research on the Problems of Children and Youth United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Government Operations. Subcommittee on Executive Reorganization and Government Research,1971 Post-conference Proceedings, National Youth Participation Conference ,1981 Youth Rising? Maysoun Sukarieh,Stuart Tannock,2014-08-27 Over the last decade youth has become increasingly central to policy development media and public debates and conflicts across the world whether as an ideological symbol social category or political actor Set against a backdrop of contemporary political economy Youth Rising seeks to understand exactly how and why youth has become such a popular and productive social category and concept The book provocatively argues that the rise and spread of global neoliberalism has not only led youth to become more politically and symbolically salient but also to expand to encompass a growing range of ages and individuals of different class race ethnic national and religious backgrounds Employing both theoretical and historical analysis authors Maysoun Sukarieh and Stuart Tannock trace the development of youth within the context of capitalism where it has long functioned as a category for social control The book s chapters critically analyze the growing fears of mass youth unemployment and a lost generation that spread around the world in the wake of the global financial crisis They question as well the relentless focus on youth in the reporting and discussion of recent global protests and uprisings By helping develop a better understanding of such phenomena and critically and reflexively investigating the very category and identity of youth Youth Rising offers a fresh and sobering challenge to the field of youth studies and to widespread claims about the relationship between youth and social change Youth's Companion ,1879 Smart Cities Rajendra Joshi,2019-12-18 Saath ensured communities understood not just their rights when it came to basic services but also their responsibilities With three decades of experience in partnerships for equitable and rights based urban development Saath is well positioned not just to be a player important as that is but to also be a resource agency a teacher and a guru sharing its successes and failures to other institutions who are treading a similar path Mr Shankar Venkateswaran Former Chief TATA Sustainability Group and former Country Head American India Foundation This book not only highlights the good work done by Saath but also provides food for thought in terms of what needs to be done to make our cities a much better place to live than what they are today This book will certainly help inspire people to join NGOs in their own ways and help create an atmosphere for social change that will lead to a more inclusive growth Mr Dilip Chenoy Secretary General Federation of Indian Chamber of Commerce and Industries Urban India needs a large number of initiatives like those taken by SAATH to solve its large and diversified problems Prof Chetan Vaidya former Director of the National Institute of Urban Affairs and School of Planning and Architecture Delhi Trustee of Saath The Youth's Companion ,1916 Includes songs for solo voice with piano accompaniment Getting a Job, Finding a Home Julie Rugg,Anwen Jones,1999 How easy or difficult is it for young people to get a job and to find a home in the countryside Debates surrounding youth policy tend to focus on young people in urban areas despite a high proportion of young people living in the countryside Furthermore problems that are often thought of as specifically urban such as housing need unemployment and social alienation are also experienced by rural youth This report examines the experience of young people getting a job and finding a home in rural districts Only a very small number of the 60 young people interviewed actually found a sustainable independent place for themselves in rural communities Getting a job finding a home looks at the housing and employment circumstances of the young people interviewed discusses how the young people judged their experience of living in the countryside focuses on the experience of single young people balancing housing employment and transport options considers problems associated with making transitions to adulthood in the countryside The authors conclude with a number of policy implications including issues relating to rurality family support employment housing transport and household formation Helping young people to make a successful transition to independence in rural areas requires an holistic policy response that considers housing employment and transport as a joint issue Youth Employment Australia. Parliament. House of Representatives. Standing Committee on Employment, Education and Training,1997 Youth Development in India Sibnath Deb,Bishakha Majumdar,Aleena Maria Sunny,2021-12-30 This book provides a comprehensive understanding of youth development and protection in the Indian context It reviews the demographic and socio economic background and future prospects of Indian youth The book discusses the role of family and culture in the upbringing and development of youth changing political and socio economic situations and the influence of parents and teachers in shaping the future of the youth The book highlights the nature of adversities faced by children and youth and the subsequent impact on their mental health and well being It also examines the efficacy of various skill development programmes and national and international policies designed for the youth The book will be of interest to students teachers and researchers of population sciences population studies psychology childhood studies development studies sociology and youth studies It will also be of interest to policymakers and NGOs working with children and youth The Survey ,1919 Popular Science Monthly ,1928 Adolescents in School and Society Gary M.
