Pedagogical Responses to the Changing Position of Girls and Young Women Carrie Paechter, Rosalyn George, Angela McRobbie, 2018-02-02 Academics and professionals working with young women face a series of paradoxes Over the last 20 years the lives of young women in the UK and Europe have been transformed They have gained considerable freedom and independence but at the very same time new less tangible forms of constraint and subordination now play a defining role in the formation of their everyday subjectivities and identities Young women have come to exemplify the pervasive sensibility of self responsibility and self organisation This new gender regime demands both conceptualisation and practical response drawing on educational research social and cultural theory and contemporary feminist thought Within the overarching theme of pedagogical responses to these trends through work in schools and within young women's online and face to face communities this book interrogates the field of sexuality and its visualisation across new and old media in the context of often predictable and endemic moral panics about teenage pregnancy rates sexually transmitted diseases and internet pornography In exploring how girls and young women respond to increasing expectations of them as the vanguard of economic social and cultural change contributors to this volume interrogate the ways in which social and educational aspiration interact with young women's developing and embodied identities This book was originally published as a special issue of Pedagogy Culture and Society

How (and Why) to Get Students Talking Jean Sunde Peterson, 2020-08-03 Unique practical resource helps teachers counselors and youth leaders bring students together to talk openly about important issues in their lives In our digital era young people need a safe supportive place to connect and just talk with caring peers and an attentive adult With more inclusive language new discussion topics about social media and a revised introduction this updated edition of How and Why to Get Students Talking addresses the unique issues faced by today's middle and high school students Through guided group discussions young people gain self awareness build important verbal communication skills cope with difficult emotions practice problem solving and more The book's guided conversations are proven ways to reach out to young people and address their social emotional development and the discussions can be easily adapted and customized Introductory and background materials prepare group leaders of all experience levels to feel confident as discussion facilitators Includes digital content with reproducible handouts from the book

Youth and Political

Participation Glenn H. Utter, 2011-09-12 This comprehensive reference examines the history and importance of youth participation in politics suggests reasons for their disengagement and discusses efforts to increase the interest of young voters in the political process a process in which they could be a controlling factor Surveys indicate that those under the age of 30 consistently score the lowest on factual questions about politics and young people are the least likely to engage in political activity online despite being the age group most likely to use the Internet Many political researchers and activists are justifiably concerned linking the low level of political participation among American youth to the overall health of our democratic system Youth and Political Participation A Reference Handbook sheds light on this important subject identifying and discussing factors that have influenced youth political participation in the past and those that play a role today including the mass media political parties interest groups and individual attitudes toward political engagement The book also provides historical perspective by addressing the early years of the Republic the protest politics of the 1960s the campaign for the 18 year old vote and the results of the 26th Amendment granting that right Cool Careers Without College for Web Surfers Tonya Buell, 2005-08-30 Describes fourteen careers not requiring a college degree for people who are interested in computers including job descriptions education and training requirements salary averages career outlook and a directory of where to go for more information Occupations include online host writer blogger webmaster technical recruiter e commerce customer service representative web entrepreneur web designer animator graphic artist day trader game tester online researcher travel agent I Found It on the Internet Frances Jacobson Harris, 2011 Presents a practical guide for librarians and educators to help them address issues relating to youth and technology and offers advice on incorporating communications technology into public school libraries Kaapse bibliotekaris, 2012 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 Braille Book Review, 2015-03 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 Library & Information Science Abstracts, 2008 Books in Print Supplement, 2002 Mobilizing Generation 2.0 Ben Rigby, 2008-04-25 How nonprofit and political organizations can use new media to mobilize young people This practical guidebook from Rock the Vote the organization that mobilized a generation of voters reviews the gamut of new media and the ways in which it can be used to recruit organize and mobilize young people who represent the majority of new media users Library Journal, 2005 Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson, 2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L.
