The Governance of Artificial Intelligence in the “Autonomous City” Federico Cugurullo, Tan Yigitcanlar, Xiaoling Zhang, Vincent J. Del Casino Jr., Natalie Marie Gulsrud, Sarah Barns, 2023-10-18 Artificial intelligence AI is now mediating and in some cases seen to be controlling key urban services and infrastructures thus becoming a prominent feature of the contemporary city As portrayed in recent studies the autonomous city can be understood as a city where urban artificial intelligences perform tasks and take on roles which have traditionally been the domain of humans At stake in these debates are questions related to the meaning and ongoing role of intelligence for both humans and machines While autonomous cars transport people service robots run shops drones deliver goods and city brains govern entire cities humans are redefining the meaning of what smart means in the city and what role the human being may play in future urban spaces With humans shifted to new sectors of the economy or pushed aside by algorithms and robotic agents creating new ways of seeing and governing the city we raise the question as to whether or not cities are becoming more autonomous from human experience in the sense that their operation does not rely as much on human inputs anymore

Writing America into the Twenty-First Century Elizabeth Boyle, Anne-Marie Evans, 2010-04-16 Writing America into the Twenty First Century Essays on the American Novel seeks to explore an exciting period in American literary scholarship Concentrating on novels written after 1990 and through to the new millennium and to the present day this collection presents a refreshing and much needed analysis of recent American fiction Representing the work of established scholars and emerging critical voices the essays interrogate a range of fiction including works by Philip Roth Jeffrey Eugenides Don DeLillo Thomas Pynchon and Cormac McCarthy Accessible to students scholars and the interested reader this invigorating collection navigates the works of several key male American authors of the last twenty years and in so doing offers a new way of examining the American novel This volume's strength lies in its careful academic focus on recent American fiction and seeks to reacquaint the reader with well known authors and introduce them to new literary voices such as Christopher John Farley Anthony Giardina and Daniel Suarez The collection is organised into four large topic areas Youth and Age War and Crime Culture and Spaces and Patterns Each essay deals with its own particular subject and author but the full impact of each section on the concept of writing the American novel into the present day can only really be understood when read in conjunction with the others Writing America a companion volume to Reading America New Perspectives on the American Novel 2008 would be a valuable asset to any university or branch library The volume will also attract strong interest from established academics especially those researching the fields of literature critical theory cultural history and politics

Collective Wisdom Katerina Cizek, William Uricchio, 2022-11-01 How to co create and why the emergence of media co creation as a concept and as a practice grounded in equity and justice Co creation is everywhere It's how the internet was built it generated massive prehistoric rock carvings it powered the development of vaccines for COVID 19 in record time Co creation offers alternatives to the idea of the solitary author privileged by top down media But co creation is easy to miss as individuals often take credit for and profit from collective forms of authorship erasing whole cultures and narratives as they do so Collective Wisdom offers the first guide to co creation as a concept and as a practice tracing co creation in a media making that ranges from collaborative journalism to human AI partnerships Why co create and why now The many coauthors drawing on a remarkable array of professional and personal experience focus on the radical sustained practices of co creating media within communities and with social movements They explore the urgent need for co creation across disciplines and organization and the latest methods for collaborating with nonhuman systems in biology and technology The idea of collective intelligence is not new and has been applied to such disparate phenomena as decision making by consensus and hived insects Collective wisdom goes further With conceptual explanation and practical examples this book shows that co creation only becomes wise when it is grounded in equity and justice With Coauthors Juanita Anderson Maria Agui Carter Detroit Narrative Agency Thomas Allen Harris Maori Karmael Holmes Richard Lachman Louis Massiah Cara Mertes Sara Rafsky Mich le Stephenson Amelia Winger Bearskin and Sarah Wolozin OECD Digital Economy Outlook 2020
