School Libraries Supporting Students with Hidden Needs and Talents Karla Bame Collins, 2024-10-03 Together librarians and specialists can create experiences to reach all learners in their buildings including those with hidden needs and talents While school librarians are experts at collaborating with classroom teachers too often they overlook the specialists in their buildings as key collaborative partners Focusing on the many specialists who work with students Karla Bame Collins provides information about their roles and responsibilities and discusses how school librarians can collaborate to improve learning for all students including those with hidden needs disabilities and talents that are not easily detected and may go undiagnosed Because librarians work with every student but may not always be informed about each student's particular needs it's important for them to know whom in the school to turn to for information Librarians will gain ideas for working with students to provide the best possible learning environment for each This practical book looks at the whole school library environment collection instruction space and programming and offers many ideas for librarians to collaborate with other educators and specialists for the good of all students

Beyond Identities in Modernity Yunrui

Deng, 2024-11-08 This book argues that future generations of modernity as a whole will shape participatory modernization whether Chinese modernization or Western modernization The public discourse is inundated with the good and the bad modern events with the acceleration of globalization This book debates that the biggest question in the twenty first century is not who will dominate touting a new world order upon us but rather that it is the orientation of modernization that haunts our daily realities This book explores the idea that life is not about living for an identity in any society it is about the demands for dignity and safety It goes further to state that there is also a demand for the power of being and these three elements are beyond identities as modernization moves forward Interdisciplinary in nature the book uses theories data and philosophy as toolboxes to align with microrealities around the globe Witnessing modernization and modernizing identities in China and in Australia beyond day by day the author provides a more suitable more realistic and possibly more nuanced perspective This book will be of interest to professionals students academics as well as businesspeople with China experience interested in modernization and identity the Chinese perspective and the new generation of Chinese
