Guide for Instructors Amanda M. Rosen, 2024-08-01 This book applies the existing literature in the scholarship of teaching and learning to political science advising discipline specific tips approaches and strategies to put immediately into practice Keeping in mind the pace of an academic career it also challenges the widely held misconception that being a good teacher requires a huge time investment This book is meant for three core audiences graduate students taking a course on teaching political science or about to embark on their first teaching experience newly minted PhDs facing their first academic post and trying to figure out how to balance all of their new responsibilities and veteran instructors looking to prepare a new course or revise an existing one Introduction to Teaching Gene E. Hall, Linda F. Quinn, Donna M. Gollnick, 2019-01-02 An ideal introductory text for aspiring teachers Introduction to Teaching Making a Difference in Student Learning is grounded in the realities and complexities found in today's schools. Acclaimed authors Gene E. Hall, Linda F. Quinn, and Donna M. Gollnick thoroughly prepare students to make a difference as teachers presenting firsthand stories and evidence-based practices while offering a student-centered approach to learning. The authors focus on how to address one of the biggest challenges facing many of today's schools: ensuring that all students are learning and help teachers prioritize student learning as their primary focus. From true-to-life challenges that future teachers will face such as high-stakes testing, reduced funding, low retention, and Common Core State Standards to the inspiration and joy they will experience throughout their teaching careers, the Third Edition paints an importantly authentic picture of the real life of a teacher. This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package.

Classroom Connect, 1998 Integrating Computer Technology Into the Classroom Gary R. Morrison, Deborah L. Lowther, 2005. This book focuses on integrating computers into teaching through the use of an inquiry-based, easy-to-use model for creating lesson plans. Teachers can use this 10-step process to design student-centered learning environments in which computer technology is integrated as a tool for learning rather than as a delivery mechanism. In addition, this book provides many practical examples and tips throughout to facilitate student understanding of chapter content.

Leadership in English Language Teaching and Learning Christine Anne Coombe, 2008. Leadership skills are indispensable in language teaching and learning, and the effectiveness of these skills directly affects the quality of language education, the soundness of a program, and the satisfaction level of both teachers and students in the language classrooms and beyond. Part 1 of this collection provides the theoretical underpinnings of leadership development. Part 2 focuses on leadership skills and strategies on the topics of interpersonal communication, personal organization skills, and program organization skills. Part 3 discusses ELT leadership issues in U.S. public schools. The contributors to this volume include leaders who have contributed to the TESOL profession in various capacities. Their collective expertise makes this volume an excellent resource for teachers and program directors.
