Teaching Innovations in Economics María del Carmen Valls Martínez, José-María Montero, 2024-10-31 This book highlights the latest technological innovations in economics education Economics as a discipline not only studies the relationship between ends and scarce means which can be used alternatively but also serves as a social science that uses historical data to predict future events a task complicated by the influence of human behavior In economics a solid theoretical foundation alone is insufficient practical application requires a deep understanding of statistics With the vast amount of information available today data processing is now performed using specialized software Consequently teaching economics demands a wide range of complex skills that have significantly evolved in recent years driven by the growing interest in educational innovation among professors and scientists further accelerated by advancements in new technologies Moreover economics education is increasingly aligned with the global concern for sustainability as emphasized in the United Nations Agenda 2030 Professors are now integrating sustainability into syllabi and teaching methodologies This book covers key topics such as Technological and innovative advancements in economics education New teaching learning theories and models in economics education The impact of digital transformation on economics education The role of artificial intelligence in economics education Addressing special educational needs in economics education Evaluation of the teaching learning process in economics Assessment of student learning in economics Development of materials and tools for economics education Final projects Undergraduate and Master's in economics Authored by leading professors and researchers in the field this book presents a collection of chapters that rigorously explore teaching innovations in economics

Technology-Based Teaching and Learning in Pakistani English Language Classrooms Muhammad Mooneeb Ali, 2024-12-11 Pakistan is the sixth most populous country in the world Unexpectedly the education system in Pakistan is quite orthodox in teaching and learning There are numerous educational institutes in Pakistan but they are rigorously following conventions There are problems with infrastructure and in some areas the basic facilities are also not there Sometimes the classrooms are overpopulated and sometimes there are places where no teacher is available to teach the students There are instances where the basic infrastructure is not complete and there are no proper classrooms for teaching and learning All these factors are causing a lot of problems for learners to compete in the modern world English enjoys the status of official language in the country but surprisingly learning English is a troublesome area There are problems not only in basic English language learning but also many second language learners face problems when they appear in international tests and competitive examinations English language classrooms are usually boring and uninteresting Therefore this book is written with an aim to provide alternative solutions to the conventional methods by integrating modern technology tools in Pakistani classrooms The scope of this book is widened for language researchers policymakers readers and administrators of the government to analyse some of the problems and issues mentioned in this book and develop a roadmap for better education Some of the key elements of this book are as follows This is the first research based book to explore some of the latest research tools in Pakistani classrooms This book is based on research based chapters Shows pictures of local English language classrooms Provides insights and practices for integrating modern methods in English language classrooms

Higher Ed: Tough Times in a World Divided Phillip L Beukema,2025-04-02 It s no secret that the world of higher education in the U S is in trouble It faces image problems some of the worst financial pressures ever political turmoil in at least half the states in our country and much more Not all these challenges are of academia s own making but many are Too many silos deep roots in tradition and confused institutional missions all contribute to the state of affairs Chapter by chapter the author lays bare what he regards as the most consequential matters confronting our higher education enterprise today These include everything from enrollment volatility and decline to the impact of a culture war on the DEI movement dim prospects for improved operational funding growing partisanship of university trustees and system boards the impacts of heavy reliance on contingent faculty increasingly unattractive and non competitive faculty salaries and institutional missions that have strayed or enlarged with unintended consequences As exhausting as this short list is it covers only part of the territory Colleges and universities of all stripes are affected from community and technical colleges to four year and graduate colleges and universities both private and public While there is no silver bullet at the ready the author outlines a rough blueprint for the kinds of initiatives and strategies needed to tackle the most consequential challenges we face today For many a school survival is truly at stake but achieving a turnaround is possible only if their leaders have the vision and courage to guide their institutions in the direction of life changing innovation and renewal
