Chinese American Literature Since the 1850s Xiao-huang Yin, 2000 This volume an introduction and guide to the field traces the origins and development of a body of literature written in English and in Chinese Chinese in America Loren Fessler, 1983-01-01 Shaping and Reshaping Chinese American Identity Jingyi Song, 2010-04-12 Shaping and Reshaping Chinese American Identity New York's Chinese in the Years of the Depression and World War II explores the role played by Chinese Americans in New York in the 1930's who laid the foundation for future generations to fight for civil rights as American citizens The stories of Chinese Americans during the Depression years and World War II are under represented in the existing literature that has been confined to the early days of the settlement of Chinese Americans on the west coast of the United States They were usually depicted as passive victims of exclusion as a result of Chinese Exclusion Laws This book focuses on the active participation of the Chinese American in New York City in mainstream political economic and social life that helped them to forge new identity as Chinese Americans Their active participation in federal and local elections as a means of claiming their rights as American citizens demonstrated their growing political consciousness Chinese New Yorkers support of both China and United States during the war reflected their dual identity as both Chinese and Americans Their contributions to the war front and to the home front after Pearl Harbor eventually forced the reconsideration of the Chinese Exclusion Laws The book concludes by relating the active participation of the Chinese in New York during the war years to the national movement for racial equality that resulted in new federal civil rights legislation Chinese America: History and Perspectives 1990, Holding Up More Than Half the Sky Xiaolan Bao, 2024-04-22 In 1982 20 000 Chinese American garment workers most of them women went on strike in New York City Every Chinese garment industry employer in the city soon signed a union contract The successful action reflected the ways women's changing positions within their families and within the workplace galvanized them to stand up for themselves Xiaolan Bao's now classic study penetrates to the heart of Chinese American society to explain how this militancy and organized protest seemingly so at odds with traditional Chinese female behavior came about Drawing on more than one hundred interviews Bao blends the poignant personal stories of Chinese immigrant workers with the interwoven history of the garment industry and the city's Chinese community Bao shows how the high rate of married women employed outside the home profoundly transformed family culture and with it the image and empowerment of Chinese American women At the same time she offers a complex and subtle discussion of the interplay of ethnic and class factors within New York's garment industry Passionately told and prodigiously documented Holding Up More Than Half the Sky examines the journey of a community's women through an era of change in the home on the shop floor and walking the picket line Chinese America Chinese Historical Society of America, 1994 The American Response to the Development of Chinese Nuclear Weapons Yi Long, 1994

ENCOUNTERING THE OTHER: CHINESE IMMIGRATION AND ITS IMPACT ON CHINESE AND AMERICAN

WORLDVIEWS, 1875-1905 (RACE RELATIONS). Kevin Scott Wong,1992 image of the United States as a nation of nations     The Readjustment in the Chinese Economy ,1984     Chinese America, History and Perspectives ,1995

Education of Chinese Children in Britain and the USA Lornita Yuen-Fan Wong,1992 This book analyses some major academic and psychological problems of school children of Chinese origin in Britain as a result of culture shock and the lack of understanding from parents and appropriate support from school These problems have been highlighted with case studies of Chinese children who joined the system at different ages     Asian Gangs Binh Phuoc Le,1997     Small Victories Samuel G. Freedman,1990 Provides a portrait of a master teacher in Manhattan describing her dedication to her students and recreates daily life at the school     Chinese in Australian Fiction, 1888-1988 Yu Ouyang,2008 The first Chinese in Australia are said to have arrived as early as 1818 and since then many more have made Australia their homeland the current Chinese population is over half a million It is therefore not surprising that the Chinese are featured in many Australian literary works This book examines the representation of the Chinese in Australian fiction from 1888 to 1988 with an Author Commentary at the end that provides a brief update on the subsequent fictional representations of the Chinese It begins with an overview of the Chinese in Australian and Chinese history followed by a theoretical examination of how the Chinese are made the Other by Orientalism racism and ethnocentrism It discusses literary texts written over a period of one hundred years from 1888 to 1988 The study is divided into three major periods of 1888 1901 1902 1949 and 1950 1988 The first period 1888 1901 deals with the initial attempts to represent the Chinese in fiction as the bad Other by the early Bulletin writers the Australian responses to the rise of the fear of the Yellow Peril in invasion literature and the imperialist will to power over the Chinese in writings set in China by Anglo Australian writers Apart from pursuing the issue of the continued fear and stereotyping of the Chinese in popular writing the second period 1902 1949 introduces a new phenomenon of literary Sinophilism that dichotomizes the representation of the Chinese and examines the image of Chinese women The third period 1950 1988 focuses on the problem of politicisation that polarizes literary attitudes towards the Chinese and discusses Australia s Asian writing as an extension of colonial writing that continues to Other the Chinese and explores multicultural writing as an alternative means of representation This is an important book that illustrates how the Other is represented and will be a valuable book for those in Australian studies Asian studies and literary studies     The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985     Maximum City Michael Pye,1993 Maximum City is the biography of New York City It has an exact purpose to use the past to understand how New York came to be New York and what we must do about it     The United States Odyssey in China, 1784-1990 Charles R. Kitts,1991-04-15 This survey of US China relations begins with the first ship flying an American flag to arrive in China in 1784 It then narrates the early history of this relationship concentrating on trade relations Moving in chronological order it includes chapters on the famous Open Door policy and then covers the 20th century relationship with emphasis on Japanese aggression in China and the US response World War II and the Stillwell mission and the

Communist victory shortly thereafter It then focuses on US policy towards Communist China moving from isolation and containment to normalization and recognition The book concludes with the Tiananmen Square incident and its effect on US China relations

Youth Crisis Nanette J. Davis,1999-04-30 What is the social condition of youth in modern society This is the question taken up by this passionate and substantive book The author argues that youth are at a crisis state The crisis has been brought about by the general state of social crisis violence questions of political legitimacy educational decline as well as the decline of compassion as a core principle of culture The author draws on a variety of trends and scholarly research to examine the problems of growing up in a high risk society and offers pathways to spiritual renewal and cultural renewal essential for salvaging the next generation The study takes on the youth crisis as a compelling public issue exploring various manifestations of the crisis endangered youth gang participation youth addictions unworkable schools violence in the home and on the streets homelessness and the near genocidal conditions that plague African American and urban youth Students educators and policy makers as well as anyone interested in the plight of youth and the steps necessary to successfully overcome the crisis will find this book invaluable and memorable

Chinese Subculture and Criminality Ko Lin Chin,1990-05-23 The President's Commission on Organized Crime predicted that Asian crime groups would be the United States foremost organized crime problem by the 1990s There are few comprehensive studies on the nature and scope of these groups Ko lin Chin warns that our limited law enforcement resources will be ineffective without a precise understanding of the norms values structure criminal patterns and interrelationships of these groups His study takes a major step toward this effort A sociological investigation of Triads tongs and street gangs Chin's volume explores the where how and why of these groups as well as the connection between Triad subculture and criminality Chinese Subculture and Criminality is a thoroughly researched study of Asian criminality and its manifestations in America's ethnic communities Ko lin Chin describes both the history and activities of Chinese secret societies and how these societies degenerated into crime groups He analyzes the symbiotic relationship of Chinese communities and tongs and details the history of the gangs development in San Francisco Los Angeles Monterey Park and New York City The causative and intervening factors leading to the rise of these gangs is explored as well as their nature and activities Personal and group characteristics help explain why these gangs persist Comparisons are made with other ethnic gangs The volume predicts the future direction of Chinese organized crime It concludes with a discussion of ethnic succession and the role of Chinese gangs in the heroin trade
