Chinese Literary Scene:

The Chinese Literary Scene, 1976 Kai-yu Hsu, 1975 Antologi af moderne kinesisk litteratur med indledende interviews
A History of Contemporary Chinese Literature Zicheng Hong, 2007-10-15 This groundbreaking book by the eminent Peking University professor Hong Zicheng covers the literary scene in China during the 1949-1999 period primarily focusing on fiction poetry drama and prose writing Reprinted sixteen times since its publication in the PRC in 1999 it is now available in English translation at last The first section of the book deals with the 1949-1976 period Often derided and ignored as an arid era for literature by both Chinese and overseas critics Professor Hong describes the literature that was popular and officially acceptable at the time and the cultural policies and political campaigns that shaped the tastes of readers and the literary creativity of writers during the period This part of the book is remarkable for Professor Hong's candidness and open mindedness qualities that would have made this text difficult to publish at an earlier date in China Furthermore the platform that the first part of the text provides renders the second part even more understandable to readers unfamiliar with the post 1976 literary scene and offers new insights to those who are familiar with it demonstrating as it does the close links between the two distinctive eras These links are provided by the resumption of literary traditions that had been more or less abandoned during the preceding ten year period as well as reactions against literature nurtured and guided by the state cultural apparatus The second part of the book consists of a comprehensive description of developments and insightful explanations of those developments in the literary arts and literary criticism since 1976 A unique and much needed accomplishment in contemporary literary studies Also available in paperback "The Chinese Literary Scene" Jieyu Xu, 1975 The Chinese Literary Scene Chieh-yue Hsue, 1975 On the Margins of Modernism Christopher Rosenmeier, 2017-02-27 Introduces popular 1940s Chinese authors and explores their influence on Chinese literature Xu Xu and Wumingshi were among the most widely read authors in China during and after the Second Sino Japanese War 1937-1945 but although they were an integral part of the Chinese literary scene their bestselling fiction has been given scant attention in histories of Chinese writing This groundbreaking book the first book length study of Xu Xu and Wumingshi in English or any other western language re-establishes their importance within the popular Chinese literature of the 1940s With in depth analyses of their innovative short stories and novels Christopher Rosenmeier demonstrates how these important writers incorporated and adapted narrative techniques from Shanghai modernist writers like Shi Zhecun and Mu Shiyong contesting the view that modernism had little lasting impact in China and firmly positioning these two figures within the literature of their times Fills a gap in Chinese literary history Focuses on two of the most popular Chinese authors of the 1940s Develops a wider argument about the influence of Shanghai modernism on Chinese wartime literature China's Literary and Cultural Scenes at the Turn of the 21st Century Jie Lu, 2013-10-18 China's literary and cultural production at the turn of the twenty first century is marked by heterogeneity plurality and diversity Given its complexity the literary cultural production of this period perhaps can be understood most productively as a response to a global modernity that has touched and transformed all aspects of contemporary Chinese reality The eleven essays in this book offer an introduction to some of the most important works published at the turn of the twenty first century In combining textual analysis of specific works with theoretical insights and in locating the texts in their sociocultural and socioeconomic contexts the essays explore key theoretical issues and intellectual concerns of the time They collectively draw a broad contour of new developments major trends and radical changes capturing the intellectual and cultural Zeitgeist of the age All in all these essays offer new theoretical approaches to and critical perspectives on contemporary Chinese literature and culture

The Chinese Literary Scene Kai-yu Hsu,1975      Brief History of Chinese Fiction Lu Hsun,1987-01-01      The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno,Lucas Klein,Chris Song,2023-10-19

Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation

Post-colonial Chinese Literatures in Singapore and Malaysia Yoon-wah Wong,2002 This is the first book to present in English a history of post colonial and diasporic Chinese literatures in Singapore and Malaysia The 12 essays collected in it provide an in depth study of the emergence of the new Chinese literatures by looking at the origins the themes the major authors and their works and how the creativity is closely connected with the experience of immigration and colonialization and the challenge of the post colonial world In examining a wide range of post colonial texts and their relation to the cultures of diasporic Chinese and post colonial society the author shows that each of the new literatures has its own traditions which reflect local social political and cultural history The essays also show that the literature of Singapore or Malaysia has a tradition of its own and writers of world class Besides the Chinese literary tradition a native literary tradition has been created successfully

 Dongfeng,Rosemary Roberts,Yang Xiaobin,2009-05-05 This volume has brought together essays to explore analyse and formulate feminist critiques of the conception of women in literary expressions of revolution explore the function of revolution as historical discourse and in historiographical representation and discuss the reworking of revolutionary classics in recent literary and artistic endeavours Here revolution in history and in literature is conceptualized neither as an unquestionably progressive and creative force for a new world nor an absolutely pejorative concept that necessarily leads to
