Chinese Visitor:

Chinese Outbound Tourism 2.0 Xiang (Robert) Li, 2016-02-03 Booming Mainland Chinese outbound travel is one of the most exciting phenomena in the world tourism industry's recent history. From 2000 to 2010, Chinese outbound travel increased at a compounded annual rate of 18.5 percent and it is forecasted that by 2020 China will generate approximately 100 million outbound trips a year, making China the fourth.

Chinese Outbound Tourist Behaviour Jun Wen, Metin Kozak, 2022-06-23 Assuming an international perspective, Chinese Tourist Outbound Behaviour presents an insightful exploration of the evolution of China's tourism market, explores Chinese tourists' behaviour, and considers how the country's tourism landscape will expand in the future. Featuring 16 chapters compiled and written by industry experts representing 11 countries, this collection offers a vivid profile of Chinese tourists and the characteristics distinguishing them from other market segments. This book coincides with the growing interest in Chinese tourism and tourist behaviour as the top market in the world in terms of tourism spending and arrival numbers, presenting an overview of Chinese tourist segments and travel-related concerns to paint a clear picture of the market's status. Chapters address the future of Chinese tourism, providing industry stakeholders an up-to-date view on this valuable market along with suggestions to best harness the market's power. Providing an up-to-date exploration of numerous contemporary issues, this book will be valuable to a wide audience, including advanced students in tourism, hospitality and leisure and recreation studies, and stakeholders, authorities, establishments, and employees within the tourism industry. This book offers readers greater knowledge about the past, present, and future of the Chinese outbound tourism market.

Singapore-China Relations: 50 Years Yongnian Zheng, Liang Fook Lye, 2015-11-06 Showcasing the substantive and multi-faceted Singapore-China relationship, this book examines the political, economic, socio-cultural, people-to-people, and even military exchanges between the two countries. It also highlights flagship projects and other key private sector-led projects that have become hallmarks of bilateral cooperation. The book argues that the current level of cooperation is built on the earlier foundation laid by Lee Kuan Yew and Deng Xiaoping. In a way, the bilateral relationship is a unique one. For one, Deng Xiaoping had singled out Singapore as a model for China's reforms, and China today continues to find Singapore's experience relevant. Singapore is also learning from China in the process. The two countries also have a number of bilateral institutional mechanisms that have become more important in reviewing existing cooperation and identifying new ways of working together. Rather than simply provide an overview of bilateral relations, the book highlights the unique or distinguishing features of the Singapore-China relationship.

Food, Wine and China Christof Pforr, Ian Phau, 2018-05-15 The growth of the Chinese economy and the emergence of the Chinese middle class have fuelled the rapid expansion of China's outbound tourism market, with many destinations around the world trying to capitalise on the opportunities created by the growing number of Chinese visitors. This book specifically focuses on the demand for food and wine tourism experiences by Chinese tourists, which in recent years has become an important constituent of destination competitiveness Looking at the different ways in which individual destinations have responded to this increasing demand this book provides a better understanding of the preferences motivations and perceptions that underlie food and wine consumption by Chinese tourists It also illustrates how food and wine tourism experiences have been used in a range of international destinations to specifically attract visitors from China Including a range of case examples from the Asia Pacific region and Europe this book ultimately investigates the strategic directions adopted to guide destination development and marketing initiatives Such a perspective provides a novel contribution to the still limited body of knowledge on China outbound tourism and will be of interest to upper level students researchers and academics in Tourism and Hospitality

Handbook on Tourism and China Songshan Huang,Ganghua Chen,2020-06-26 Covering a wide range of current issues this comprehensive Handbook explores the links between tourism as a dynamic tertiary industry and China as the world s most influential tourism market and destination Report New York (State) Chamber of Commerce of State of New York,1904 China's Millions ,1885 The Report: Peru 2017 Oxford Business Group, Over the last decade Peru has consistently been the fastest growing economy in Latin America and unlike some of its neighbours has been remarkably resilient to global headwinds registering positive growth rates for an uninterrupted 18 years through to 2016 While the pace of growth has slowed as the long commodities boom ebbed after 2012 Peru recorded an average annual growth rate of 5.9% in 2005-15 almost double the 3% rate for Latin America as a whole Stakeholders and investors will now be looking to efforts by the new government which took office in July 2016 to address problems implement additional reforms and spur further economic growth Advancing Singapore-China Economic Relations Saw Swee-Hock,John Wong,2014-01-28 This book presents a detailed account of the development of strong and substantive economic relations that existed between Singapore and China since the time when the two countries established diplomatic ties in October 1990 The chapters provide a comprehensive discussion of the main areas of cooperation such as the institutional framework for pursuing economic links the Suzhou Industrial Park the Sino Singapore Tianjin Eco City investments trade finance tourism and education The economic opportunities and challenges in these economic sectors in the two countries are examined in the context of the profound political and social changes taking place in mainland China and the globalization of the world economy The book will be invaluable to policy makers academics and students specializing in Chinese studies as well as businessmen and the general public interested in seeking a greater understanding of the complex economic relations between the two nations

Foreignness and Selfhood Mengmeng Yan,2022-05-08 In inviting a rethinking of ideas of foreignness and selfhood this book explores Sino British encounters in eighteenth century English literature providing detailed critical and literary analysis of individual texts pertaining to China from this period The author provides a synthesis of approaches to China in eighteenth century English literature involving fictional writing related to China adaptations of Chinese source texts and translations of Chinese literary works By discussing various writings about tea and tea drinking Arthur Murphy s The Orphan of China 1759

Oliver Goldsmith's The Citizen of the World 1760-62 and Thomas Percy's Hu-Kiou Chooan 1761 she highlights the significance of reading these texts not simply as documents of a historical kind but as texts that are worthy of literary and artistic attention on the basis of their rich variety in genre style and themes. The author proposes that Chinese and British cultures are not antithetical entities; they exist in relation to one another and create possibilities in the continuing appreciation of diversity amidst a drive to universality. This study will be primarily helpful to university students and professors of English literature, comparative literature and history worldwide.
