Chinese Marxism in Flux, 1978-84 Bill Brugger, 1985-01-01 This study of major traumas of the 20th century in America focuses on how the national responds to them what those responses mean and how nation traumas are similar and different to personal traumas Coverage includes the Depression Pearl Harbor and the assassinations of Kennedy and King The Chinese Reassessment of Socialism, 1976-1992 Yan Sun, 1995-08-21 A momentous debate has been unfolding in China over the last fifteen years only intermittently in public view concerning the merits of socialism as a philosophy of social justice and as a program for national development Just as Deng Xiaoping's better advertised experiment with market based reforms has challenged Marxist Leninist dogma on economic policy the years since the death of Mao Zedong have seen a profound reexamination of a more basic question to what extent are the root problems of the system due to Chinese socialism and Marxism generally Here Yan Sun gathers a remarkable group of primary materials drawn from an unusual range of sources to present the most systematic and comprehensive study of post Mao reappraisal of China's socialist theory and practice Rejecting an assumption often made in the West that Chinese socialist thought has little bearing on politics and policymaking Sun takes the arguments of the post Mao era seriously on their own terms She identifies the major factions in the debate reveals the interplay among official and unofficial forces and charts the development of the debate from an initially parochial concern with problems raised by Chinese practice to a grand critique of the theory of socialism itself She concludes with an enlightening comparison of the reassessments undertaken by Deng Xiaoping with those of Gorbachev linking them to the divergent outcomes of reform and revolution in their respective countries From Post-Maoism to Post-Marxism ,

Melodrama and Asian Cinema Wimal Dissanayake, 1993-05-28 This unique study examines the importance of melodrama in the film traditions of Japan India China Indonesia the Philippines and Australia China's Second Revolution Harry Harding, 2010-12-01 China has since 1976 been enmeshed in an extraordinary program of renewal and reform The obvious changes the T-shirts blue jeans makeup and jewelry worn by Chinese youth the disco music blaring from radios and loudspeakers on Chinese streets the television antennas mushrooming from both urban apartment complexes and suburban peasant housing the bustling free markets selling meat vegetables and clothing in China's major cities reflect a fundamental shift in the government's policy toward the economy and political life Although doubts about the long term commitment to reform arose after the student protests in December 1986 and the dismissal of Party General Secretary Hu Yaobang in January 1987 the scope of reform has been so broad and the pace of change so rapid that the post Mao era fully warrants Deng Xiaoping's description of it as the second revolution undertaken by the Chinese Communist Party The Chinese
