Chinese Language Film Historiography Poetics Politics:

Chinese-language Film Sheldon H. Lu, Emilie Yueh-yu Yeh, 2005 A comprehensive work on Chinese film this text explores the manifold dimensions of the subject and highlights areas overlooked in previous studies Leading scholars take up issues and topics covering the entire range of Chinese cinema

Cinema at the Periphery Dina Iordanova, David Martin-Jones, Belén Vidal, 2010 Highlights the industries markets identities and histories that distinguish cinema beyond the traditional hubs of mainstream Western cinema From Iceland to Iran from Singapore to Scotland a growing intellectual and cultural wave of production is taking cinema beyond the borders of its place of origin exploring faraway places interacting with barely known peoples and making new localities imaginable In these films previously entrenched spatial divisions no longer function as firmly fixed grid coordinates the hierarchical position of place as center is subverted and new forms of representation become possible In Cinema at the Periphery editors Dina Iordanova David Martin Jones and Belén Vidal assemble criticism that explores issues of the periphery including questions of transnationality place space passage and migration Cinema at the Periphery examines the periphery in terms of locations practices methods and themes It includes geographic case studies of small national cinemas located at the global margins like New Zealand and Scotland but also of filmmaking that comes from peripheral cultures like Palestinian stateless cinema Australian Aboriginal films and cinema from Quebec Therefore the volume is divided into two key areas industries and markets on the one hand and identities and histories on the other Yet as a whole the contributors illustrate that the concept of periphery is not fixed but is always changing according to patterns of industry ideology and taste Cinema at the Periphery highlights the inextricable interrelationship that exists between production modes and circulation channels and the emerging narratives of histories and identities they enable In the present era of globalization this timely examination of the periphery will interest teachers and students of film and media studies

Contemporary Chinese Cinema and Visual Culture Sheldon Lu, 2021-07-15 Honourable Mention Best Monograph Award BAFTSS Publication Awards 2022 Sheldon Lu's wide ranging new book investigates how filmmakers and visual artists from mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan have envisioned China as it transitions from a socialist to a globalized capitalist state It examines how the modern nation has been refashioned and reimagined in order to keep pace with globalization and transnationalism At the heart of Lu's analysis is a double movement in the relationship between nation and transnationalism in the Chinese post socialist state He considers the complexity of how the Chinese economy is integrated in the global capitalist system while also remaining a repressive body politic with mechanisms of control and surveillance He explores the interrelations of the local the national the subnational and the global as China repositions itself in the world Lu considers examples from feature and documentary film mainstream and marginal cinema and a variety of visual arts photography painting digital video architecture and installation His close case studies include representations of class masculinity and sexuality in contemporary Taiwanese and Chinese cinema the figure of the sex

Asian Cinemas Dimitris Eleftheriotis, Gary Needham, 2006 Asian cinema is an area of increasing interest in Anglo US film studies while Asian films are now widely distributed and popular with western audiences The fascination with Asian cinema must be examined in the context of a complex and often problematic relationship between western scholars students viewers and Asian films This book therefore examines a number of detailed case studies such as the films of Ozu Bruce Lee Hong Kong and Turkish cinema Hindi melodramas Godzilla films Taiwanese directors and Fifth Generation Chinese cinema and uses them in order to investigate the limitations of Anglo US theoretical models and critical paradigms By engaging the readers with familiar areas of critical discourse such as postcolonial criticism national cinema genre authorship and stardom the book aims to introduce within such contexts the unfamiliar case studies which will be explored in depth and detail The advantage of such an approach is that it works with the dynamics of familiarity unfamiliarity and resists the temptation to construct Asian cinemas as a gallery of exotic objects that might be particularly fascinating but remain deeply distant and foreign Features A comprehensive study of Asian cinemas including Hong Kong Japan China India Turkey and Taiwan An accessible guide for the study and research of Asian cinema which addresses undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers Each section contains a contextualising introduction Includes key texts by Ackbar Abbas Rey Chow David Desser Dimitris Eleftheriotis Nezhir Erdo
