Chink A Documentary History Of Anti Chinese Prejudice In America:

"Chink!" A Documentary History of Anti-Chinese Prejudice in America Cheng-Tsu Wu, 1972 Chink C T Wu, 1972 Locating American Studies Lucy Maddox, 1999 This collection of 17 essays first printed in American Quarterly the journal of the American Studies Association To mark the Association's 50th anniversary in 1998 the editor has brought together works by a group of scholars which she believes provide a window into the history and evolution of the practice of American studies Each essay originally published between 1950 and 1996 is accompanied by a commentary in which a scholar from a related field provides critical information for understanding the continuing importance of the work to the American Studies field Contributors include Gene Wise Henry Nash Smith Barbara Welter Alexander Saxton and Kevin Mumford Emergent U.S. Literatures Cyrus Patell, 2014-11-07 Emergent U S Literatures introduces readers to the foundational writers and texts produced by four literary traditions associated with late twentieth century US multiculturalism Examining writing by Native Americans Hispanic Americans Asian Americans and gay and lesbian Americans after 1968 Cyrus R K Patell compares and historicizes what might be characterized as the minority literatures within U S minority literature Drawing on recent theories of cosmopolitanism Patell presents methods for mapping the overlapping concerns of the texts and authors of these literatures during the late twentieth century He discusses the ways in which literary marginalization and cultural hybridity combine to create the grounds for literature that is truly emergent in Raymond Williams's sense of the term literature that produces new meanings and values new practices new relationships and kinds of relationships in tension with the dominant mainstream culture of the United States By enabling us to see the American literary canon through the prism of hybrid identities and cultures these texts require us to reevaluate what it means to write and read in the American grain Emergent U S Literatures gives readers a sense of how these foundational texts work as aesthetic objects rather than merely as sociological documents crafted in dialogue with the canonical tradition of so called American Literature as it existed in the late twentieth century as well as in dialogue with each other Multiculturalism in the College Curriculum Marilyn Lutzker, 1995-03-18 Emphasizing that diversity in the curriculum is as much about a way of thinking as it is about specific information Lutzker presents a compendium of innovative and practical classroom strategies and widely available information resources which will enable faculty to increase the multicultural content of their courses without necessarily making major changes in their accustomed methods of teaching This is a handbook for college faculty in all disciplines who would like to increase the multicultural content of their courses but have been reluctant to do so for a variety of reasons including an already overloaded syllabus a lack of background in the subject uncertainty about student reactions or lack of time to make substantial changes in an existing syllabus Administrators anxious to increase diversity in the curriculum of their institutions but unable to fund large scale curriculum revision projects will also find this volume useful Part I is concerned with classroom strategies and with student research projects Starting with discussions of

objectives and priorities the underlying role of critical thinking and the importance of language sensitivity the book then describes specific classroom strategies useful for increasing diversity The subsequent chapters are devoted to discussions of general guidelines for developing student projects with a multicultural perspective innovative alternatives to the traditional term paper and suggestions for multicultural student projects which do not require library research Part I concludes with a discussion of possible student reactions to increased multiculturalism and suggested approaches to those reactions Part II is concerned with information resources which will be useful to instructors and to students Fully annotated lists are provided in a variety of areas including widely available primary sources specialized biographical directories sources for sample syllabi in all disciplines guides to ethnic and foreign press to films and videos and to electronic resources Part II concludes with a discussion designed to increase efficiency in using the library catalog to locate information in multicultural subject areas Appendices provide sample research worksheets a list of small publishers and distributors of multicultural books and an annotated bibliography

Documents Of American Prejudice S. T. Joshi, 1968-01-21 Most of us know something of America's long history of racial prejudice but it's easy to forget the extent to which explicit racism has been until only recently an acceptable part of public discourse in many cases espoused by some of the country's most influential and public figures and bolstered by references to well respected scientific religious and philosophical theories In Documents of American Prejudice S T Joshi provides an anthology of primary documents tracing the evolution of racial prejudice since early colonial times In the more than 100 selections spanning more than 300 years of injustice we hear the voices of both well loved and reviled figures from Thomas Jefferson to David Duke They write about the supposed shortcomings of specific ethnic and racial groups and in defense of racist theories like Social Darwinism and eugenics Included also are arguments against racism which highlight a tradition of anti racist writing in American history Sobering lively infuriating and provocative this thoughtfully edited anthology shows us America s long and tangled history of racial prejudice and helps us understand contemporary American racism through the prism of the country s history ENCOUNTERING THE OTHER: CHINESE IMMIGRATION AND ITS IMPACT ON CHINESE AND AMERICAN WORLDVIEWS, 1875-1905 (RACE RELATIONS).
