the globe as possible so as to make globalisation more than simply an economic theme Such reflections as the contributions in this book show from this perspective would also examine the possible ways in which relations might be constituted within political socialisation participation and education These concepts are in turn to be explored in the substantive discussions of democracy and democratisation in relation to individuals as well as political systems If educational policy is social policy if a democratic society demands citizens who are educated and thus capable of political action the themes Political Education and Political Socialisation need to be addressed anew and this is equally important for a rethinking of the future of the political more generally The contributions to the book contribute to a challenging debate      Philosophy of Education
