Choosing Cases In Moral Decision Making:

Choosing Michael Pennock, 1991 Exercises to assist students in making decisions on moral issues Deciding as a Christian Brian Singer-Towns, 1999-12-31 The older teens in your parish want a youth ministry program that exposes them to relevant real world topics in an active engaging way Horizons is an innovative comprehensive approach to religious education Its foundation is teacher led creative learning strategies that give students ample opportunities for discussion reflection and fun Designed for grades 9 12 Horizons utilizes a module system so that you can combine courses and topics to meet the specific needs of your parish Seven core courses set the stage for discussing central and foundational themes Then choose from a wide selection of age appropriate minicourses to round out your curriculum and craft summer courses retreats and youth group activities The Youth Ministry Strategies component features more than 65 creative youth activities to complement the Horizons curriculum And on top of all that Horizons includes outstanding training resources You ll be able to create the most engaging and relevant youth ministry program for senior high that is available anywhere Moral Issues in Military Decision Making Anthony E. Hartle, 2004 Much has changed in warfare in recent years with America now dominant on the international scene and terrorism the new enemy In light of these changes the need for moral grounding in military actions is a more pressing concern than ever When it was originally published Moral Issues in Military Decision Making reflected the concerns posed by nuclear stalemate and the lessons of Vietnam In that highly praised work Anthony Hartle outlined the essential elements of the Professional Military Ethic created for American military forces In this new edition he reexamines the moral foundations for America s military leadership in the post 9 11 era Considering world affairs since the first edition the Gulf War Bosnia Afghanistan Iraq 9 11 and the emergence of the United States as an unrivaled military power Hartle explains how these events have raised ethical issues that differ dramatically from those of the Cold War by the war on terrorism homeland defense asymmetric warfare the proliferation of American military interventions and the UN s role in peacekeeping operations Using meticulously analyzed case studies twice as many as in the first edition he considers such moral dilemmas as torture challenging superior officers use of overwhelming force and responding to fire in the presence of civilian shields In this revision Hartle examines further the status of professional military ethics in light of current affairs changes in the articulation of military values and recent research In a new chapter on human rights he relates moral principles directly to values embedded in the Constitution and argues that overwhelming American military power cannot succeed unless it is accompanied by the moral force of the values it seeks to protect difficulties of applying conventional laws of war and human rights doctrine in military operations Hartle convincingly shows that national security is as much about the preservation of moral principles as it is about the protection of America s citizens and borders His book demonstrates that the American military must continue to observe those principles in order to be effective in its primary mission People v. Kevorkian; Hobbins v. Attorney General, 447 MICH 436 (1994) , 1994 99752 99758 A New Approach to Utilitarianism C.L. Sheng, 2012-12-06 1 1 Utilitarian Theories This book is a monograph on moral philosophy and social philosophy particularly the part of the philosophy of economics that is related to the general distribution problem It presents a comprehensive ethical theory together with an application of the theory to distributive justice The viewpoint of this theory is utilitarian However this theory is different in some crucial points as well as in minor details from all existing forms of utilitarianism Moral philosophy deals essentially with the moral judgment of actions i e whether a moral action is right or wrong good or bad The judgment is usually based on a line of logical reasoning which can be traced to a final reason called the justification or ultimate principle An ethical theory is a self consistent system built upon a basic or ultimate principle An ultimate principle can never be rigorously proven and is not unique Different philosophers establish different ethical theories upon different principles Therefore in the history of development of moral philosophy there have been a large number of ethical theories and schools Even within the same school having the same ultimate principle different philosophers may have different versions of the theory because of small variations in the interpretation of the ultimate principle or in the elaboration of the details
