A comparative study of elite English-medium schools, public schools, and Islamic madaris in contemporary

Pakistan Akhtar Hassan Malik, 2015-04-12 This ethnographic study examines the role of differing school knowledge in reproducing various social classes in the society It was observed that an unequal availability of capital resources agents class habitus and the type of their cultural currency act as selection mechanisms that clearly favour some social groups over others The ruling classes ensure the transfer of their power and privilege to their children by providing them with quality education in elite schools The disadvantaged classes are excluded from these unique institutions by both social and economic sanctions They have no other option than to educate their children either in public schools or Islamic madaris As a result inequitable educational opportunities consolidate the existing social class hierarchy Higher Education Choice in China Xiaoming Sheng, 2014-04-16 Much of the existing research on parental involvement and higher education choice examines the difference between the working class and the middle class but little literature looks at different factions within the social classes This book discusses higher education choice in China particularly through the examination of social issues such as social stratification parental involvement and gender and educational inequality Drawing from an empirical study based on Bourdieu's theory the book explores both inter class and intra class differences in China providing an insight into how social class differences influence a number of issues including educational equality the role parents especially mothers play in higher education decision making the relationship between traditional cultural norms gendered relationships within Chinese families The sociology of higher education choices are derived through feedback from various sources including both parents and students themselves The book will be key reading for postgraduates and researchers in the fields of sociology sociology of education Chinese studies and Asian studies Resources in Education, 1998-04 College Choice and Access to College Amy A.
