Chora Vol Iv Intervals In The Philosophy Of Architecture:

William Lethaby, Symbolism and the Occult Amandeep Kaur Mann, 2022-03-23 This book delves into the life and work of architect William Richard Lethaby 1857 1931 and his relationship with the occult and alchemy in particular Using detailed analysis of Lethaby s drawings and architecture the research uncovers Lethaby s familiarity with occult concepts and ideology during the spiritual revolution of the nineteenth century Throughout this time countless individuals particularly members of the avant garde rejected more traditional religious pathways and sought answers through experimental and mystical alternatives William Lethaby Symbolism and the Occult reveals how the architect was profoundly influenced by the Zeitgeist which was saturated with references to spiritualism mysticism and the occult and explores the impact of occultism on his contemporaries and the wider Arts and Crafts Movement This book is written for upper level students researchers and academics interested in architectural history William Lethaby and nineteenth century culture and society The Philosopher's Index ,2009 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts The Academic Portfolio Peter Seldin,J. Elizabeth Miller,2010-12-28 This comprehensive book focuses squarely on academic portfolios which may prove to be the most innovative and promising faculty evaluation and development technique in years The authors identify key issues red flag warnings and benchmarks for success describing the what why and how of developing academic portfolios The book includes an extensively tested step by step approach to creating portfolios and lists 21 possible portfolio items covering teaching research scholarship and service from which faculty can choose the ones most relevant to them The thrust of this book is unique It provides time tested strategies and proven advice for getting started with portfolios It includes a research based rubric grounded in input from 200 faculty members and department chairs from across disciplines and institutions It examines specific guiding questions to consider when preparing every subsection of the portfolio It presents 18 portfolio models from 16 different academic disciplines Designed for faculty members department chairs deans and members of promotion and tenure committees all of whom are essential partners in developing successful academic portfolio programs the book will also be useful to graduate students especially those planning careers as faculty members Attunement Alberto Perez-Gomez,2016-07-22 How architecture can move beyond the contemporary enthusiasms for the technically sustainable and the formally dazzling to enhance our human values and capacities Architecture remains in crisis its social relevance lost between the two poles of formal innovation and technical sustainability In Attunement Alberto P rez G mez calls for an architecture that can enhance our human values and capacities an architecture that is connected attuned to its location and its inhabitants Architecture P rez G mez explains operates as a communicative setting for societies its beauty and its meaning lie in its connection to human health and self understanding Our physical places are of utmost importance for our well being Drawing on recent work in embodied cognition P rez G mez argues that the environment including the built environment matters not only as a material ecology but because it is nothing less than a constituent part of our consciousness To be fully self aware we need an external environment replete with meanings and emotions P rez G mez views architecture through the lens of mood and atmosphere linking these ideas to the key German concept of Stimmung attunement and its roots in Pythagorean harmony and Vitruvian temperance or proportion He considers the primacy of place over space the linguistic aspect of architecture the voices of architecture and the voice of the architect architecture as a multisensory not pictorial experience with Piranesi Ledoux and Hejduk as examples of metaphorical modeling and how Stimmung might be put to work today to realize the contemporary possibilities of attunement Reading Spiritualities Dawn Llewellyn, Deborah F. Sawyer, 2008 The phenomenon of sacred text has undergone radical deconstruction in recent times reflecting how religion has broken out of its traditional definitions and practices and how current literary theories have influenced texts inside the religious domain and beyond Reading Spiritualities presents both commentary and vivid examples of this evolution engaging with a variety of reading practices that work with traditional texts and those that extend the notion of text itself The contributors draw on a range of textual sites such as an interview Caribbean literature drama and jazz women s writings emerging church blogs Neo pagan websites the reading practices of Buddhist nuns empirical studies on the reading experiences of Gujarati Christian and post Christian women Chicana short stories the mosque cinema modern art and literature These examples open up understandings of where and how sacred texts are emerging and being reassessed within contemporary religious and spiritual contexts and make room for readings where the spiritual resides not only in the textual but in other unexpected places Reading Spiritualities includes contributions from Graham Holderness Ursula King Michael N Jagessar David Jasper Anthony G Reddie Mich le Roberts and Heather Walton to reflect and encourage the interdisciplinary study of sacred text in the broad arena of the arts and social sciences It offers a unique and well focussed snapshot of the textual constructions and representations of the sacred within the contemporary religious climate accessible to the general reader as well as more specialist interests of students and researchers working in the crossover fields of religious theological cultural and literary studies Drawing Imagining Building Paul Emmons, 2019-04-01 Drawing Imagining Building focuses on the history of hand drawing practices to capture some of the most crucial and overlooked parts of the process Using 80 black and white images to illustrate the examples it examines architectural drawing practices to elucidate the ways drawing advances the architect s imagination Emmons considers drawing practices in the Renaissance and up to the first half of the twentieth century Combining systematic analysis across time with historical explication presents the development of hand drawing while also grounding early modern practices in their historical milieu Each of the illustrated chapters considers formative aspects of architectural drawing practice such as upright elevations flowing lines and occult lines and drawing scales to identify their roots in an embodied approach to show how hand drawing contributes to the architect s productive imagination By documenting some of the ways of thinking through practices of architectural handdrawing it describes how practices can enrich the ethical imagination of the architect This book would be beneficial for academics practitioners and students of architecture particularly those who are interested in the history and significance of hand drawing and technical drawing Social Practices and City Spaces Kyriaki Tsoukala, 2023-11-07 This book examines the relationship between social practices and built space focusing on current cooperative participative and posthuman approaches to its production and management From a social cultural and ecological perspective it explores the modes of engagement of all factors in the constitutional processes of inhabited space Throughout this interdisciplinary collection built space is reconsidered in the light of other schools of thought such as philosophy anthropology social sciences and political theories and practices It covers new ground at conceptual epistemic and methodological levels focusing on inhabited space from within the framework of globalisation biopolitics cultural changes environmental crisis and new technologies Organised into three parts Parts 1 and 2 focus on the role of architects in the emergence of a new ethos for habitation as well as the modalities of the inclusion of differences in design discussing the importance of participation and narrative at a theoretical and practical level in architecture In the third part the chapters delve into questions regarding the intersection of design ecology and technoscience in a posthuman approach which might support the inclusion of differences in design and the emergence of a new environmental ethos Providing a stimulating landscape of arguments and challenges to new readings of architecture society and the environment this book will be of interest to researchers students and professionals of architecture urban planning anthropology and philosophy Architectural Publications Index ,1999 Icons of Space Jelena Bogdanović, 2021-07-26 Icons of Space Advances in Hierotopy brings together important scholars of Byzantine religion art and architecture to honour the work of renowned art historian Alexei Lidov As well as his numerous publications Lidov is well known for developing the concept of hierotopy an innovative approach for studying the creation of sacred spaces Hierotopy and the related concepts of spatial icons and image paradigms emphasize fundamental questions about icons including what defines them as structures spaces and experiences Chapters in this volume engage with the overarching theme of icons of space by employing contrasting and complementing methods of hierotopy with more traditional approaches such as iconography Examinations of icons have traditionally been positioned within strictly historical theological socio economic political and art history domains but this volume poses epistemological questions about the creation of sacred spaces that are instead inclusive of multi layered iconic ideas and the lived experiences of the creators and beholders of such spaces This book contributes to image theory and theories of architecture and sacred space Simultaneously it moves beyond colonial studies that predominantly focus on questions of religion and politics as expressions of privileged knowledge and power This book will appeal to scholars and students of Byzantine history as well as those interested in hierotopy and art history Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Chora 4 Alberto Pérez Gómez, Stephen Parcell, 2004 Contributors to this volume strive to uncover architectural alternatives to simplistic models based on concepts of aesthetics technology or sociology Seventeen essays explore historical topics ranging from antiquity with a study of the Roman Colosseum through early Renaissance subjects such as the treatises of Luca Pacioli on architecture through to the modern era and explorations on topics ranging from 17th century Amsterdam to architectural insights that can be found in the works of the poet and mathematician Lewis Carroll Authors examining contemporary issues seek to explicate the spatial poetics of architecture by invoking other artistic disciplines Essays in this group include a discussion of the accomplishments of Gordon Matta Clark a reading of Alfred Hitchcock's Rear Window and an analysis of the implications of ethical formal questions in the work of Ludwig Wittgenstein for architecture Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1998-06 Choice ,1996

Scroope ,2004 Architecture and Memory Robert Kirkbride,2008-11-11 The studioli of the ducal palaces at Urbino and Gubbio Italy demonstrate architecture's capacity to transact between the mental and physical realms of human experience Constructed between 1474 and 1483 for the military captain Federico da Montefeltro and his young motherless son the studioli may be described as treasuries of emblems they contain not things but images of things rendered with remarkable perspectival exactitude These small image filled chambers reflect how architecture and its ornament equipped a quattrocento mind with metaphors for wisdom and methods for statecraft and intellectual activity Drawing on the densely layered imagery in the studioli and text sources readily available to the Urbino court Robert Kirkbride examines the position of the studioli in the Western tradition of the memory arts considering how architecture bridged the mathematical arts which lent themselves to mechanical pursuits and the art of rhetoric a discipline central to memory and eloquence As subtle ramifications of material and mental craft the studioli provided ideal methods for education and prudent governance extending an ancient legacy of open ended models that were conceived to activate the imagination and exercise the memory At the time of their construction the studioli represented the leading edge of technologies of visual representation and offer a case study of how contemporary advances in interactive technologies reactivate and transform ancient metaphors for thought and learning Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09
