Freeman, 1995 Born out of exhaustive research and study this volume covers the five major romances in octosyllabic rhyming couplets that may with certainty be ascribed to the 12th century French writer Chretien de Troyes and touches on a few minor works that have been attributed to him Karl Uitti locates Chretien within the theological and philosophical setting of his time views him as a worker craftsman who produced stories on demand for his patron and argues persuasively that he advanced the French language to new heights in his work A study guide for Chretien de Troye's "Perceval, the Story of the Grail" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2015-03-13 A study guide for Chretien de Troye s Perceval the Story of the Grail excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Poetry for Students series This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs The Legacy of Courtly Literature Deborah Nelson-Campbell, Rouben Cholakian, 2017-11-17 This fascinating volume examines the enduring influence of courtly tradition and courtly love particularly in contemporary popular culture The ten chapters explore topics including the impact of the medieval troubadour in modern love songs the legacy of figures such as Tristan Iseult Lancelot Guinevere and Merlin in modern film and literature and more generally how courtly and chivalric conceptions of love have shaped the Western world s conception of love loyalty honor and adultery throughout history and to this day

"Every Valley Shall Be Exalted" Constance Brittain Bouchard, 2017-05-31 In high medieval France men and women saw the world around them as the product of tensions between opposites Imbued with a Christian culture in which a penniless preacher was also the King of Kings and the last were expected to be first twelfth century thinkers brought order to their lives through the creation of opposing categories In a highly original work Constance Brittain Bouchard examines this poorly understood component of twelfth century thought one responsible in her view for the fundamental strangeness of that culture to modern thinking Scholars have long recognized that dialectical reasoning was the basic approach to philosophical legal and theological matters in the high Middle Ages Bouchard argues that this way of thinking and categorizing which she terms a discourse of opposites permeated all aspects of medieval thought She rejects suggestions that it was the result of imprecision and provides evidence that people of that era sought not to reconcile opposing categories but rather to maintain them Bouchard scrutinizes the medieval use of opposites in five broad areas scholasticism romance legal disputes conversion and the construction of gender Drawing on research in a series of previously unedited charters and the earliest glossa manuscripts she demonstrates that this method of constructing reality was a constitutive element of the thought of the period

Without the Novel Scott Black,2019-08-23 No genre manifests the pleasure of reading and its power to consume and enchant more than romance In suspending the category of the novel to rethink the way prose fiction works Without the Novel demonstrates what literary history looks like from the perspective of such readerly excesses and adventures Rejecting the assumption that novelistic realism is the most significant tendency in the history of prose fiction Black asks three intertwined questions What is fiction without the novel What is literary history without the novel What is reading without the novel In answer this study draws on the neglected genre of romance to reintegrate eighteenth century British fiction with its classical and Continental counterparts Black addresses works of prose fiction that self consciously experiment with the formal structures and readerly affordances of romance Heliodorus s Ethiopian Story Cervantes s Don Quixote Fielding s Tom Jones Sterne s Tristram Shandy and Burney s The Wanderer Each text presents itself as a secondary satiric adaptation of anachronistic and alien narratives but in revising foreign stories each text also relays them The recursive reading that these works portray and demand makes each a self reflexive parable of romance itself Ultimately Without the Novel writes a wider weirder history of fiction organized by the recurrences of romance and informed by the pleasures of reading that define the genre

Perceval and Gawain in Dark Mirrors Rupert T. Pickens,2014-10-01 An innovative author of verse romance Chretien de Troyes wrote in northern France between 1170 and 1190 Credited with the first Arthurian romance he composed five works set in King Arthur s court culminating with an unfinished masterpiece the Conte del Graal Story of the Grail This text is the first to mention the banquet serving dish that became the Holy Grail in early efforts to rewrite or complete the text This book focuses on the Conte s narrative depiction of mirrors real and metaphorical shining armor a polished golden eagle the Grail itself St Paul s enigmatic looking glass the blood drops in snow in which Perceval sees the face of his beloved The last chapter joins the controversy over Chretien s intended conclusion and proposes a climactic ending in which Perceval heir to the Grail kingdom confronts his double Gawain heir to Arthur s Logres
