Laurie Brink, Deborah A. Green

Chrisiana Loca Volume 2 Lo Spazio Cristiano:

The Afterlife of the Roman City Hendrik W. Dey, 2014-11-17 This book offers a new and surprising perspective on the evolution of cities across the Roman Empire in late antiquity and the early Middle Ages third to ninth centuries AD It suggests that the tenacious persistence of leading cities across most of the Roman world is due far more than previously thought to the persistent inclination of kings emperors caliphs bishops and their leading subordinates to manifest the glory of their offices on an urban stage before crowds of city dwellers Long after the dissolution of the Roman Empire in the fifth century these communal leaders continued to maintain and embellish monumental architectural corridors established in late antiquity the narrow but grandiose urban itineraries essentially processional ways in which their parades and solemn public appearances consistently unfolded Hendrik W Dey s approach selectively integrates urban topography with the actors who unceasingly strove to animate it for many centuries

Spatial Christianisation in Context: Stratigraphic Intramural Building in Rome from the 4th - 7th C. AD Michael Mulryan, 2014-10-10 This book is the first to closely examine the location of the earliest purpose built Christian buildings inside the city of Rome in their contemporary context

St. Paul's Outside the Walls Nicola Camerlenghi, 2018-08-30 The book traces nearly two thousand years of architectural transformations to St Paul s Basilica one of Rome s principal churches

The Traditio Legis: Anatomy of an Image Robert Couzin, 2015-04-30 This monograph engages in a close reading of the traditio legis highlighting its novelty and complexity to early Christian viewers The image is analyzed as a conflation of two distinct forms of representation each constructed of unusual and potentially multivalent elements

Rome, Ravenna, and Venice, 750-1000 Veronica West-Harling, 2020-08-20 The richest and most politically complex regions in Italy in the earliest middle ages were the Byzantine sections of the peninsula thanks to their links with the most coherent early medieval state the Byzantine empire This comparative study of the histories of Rome Ravenna and Venice examines their common Byzantine past since all three escaped incorporation into the Lombard kingdom in the late 7th and early 8th centuries By 750 however Rome and Ravenna s political links with the Byzantine Empire had been irrevocably severed Thus did these cities remain socially and culturally heirs of Byzantium How did their political structures social organisation material culture and identities change Did they become part of the Western political and ideological framework of Italy This study identifies and analyses the ways in which each of these cities preserved the structures of the Late Antique social and cultural world or in which they adapted each and every element available to them to their own needs at various times and in various ways to create a new identity based partly on their Roman heritage and partly on their growing

Green, 2008 Commemorating the Dead analyzes and interprets the material remains of Roman period burials in light of ancient texts Is the move from columbaria to catacombs the result of evolving religious identities or simply a matter of changing fashions What Greco Roman and Jewish funerary images were baptized as Christian ones In Commemorating the Dead archaeologists Roman historians and scholars of Judaism and Early Christianity engage in a cross disciplinary conversation on the mortuary practices of the late Roman empire Christiana loca Letizia Pani Ermini, 2000 Mosaics in the Eternal City Michael G.
