Pauline Yu,2025-08-19 In early 1867 a book of poems stunned the French literary world Titled The Book of Jade it featured Chinese calligraphy and named ancient Chinese poets as sources leaving readers uncertain whether the collection was a translation or a French author s invention Though the book was published under a pseudonym the author was quickly recognized as Judith Gautier the young daughter of a prominent writer Resembling neither contemporary French verse nor any conventional translation of the day The Book of Jade opened the eyes of readers throughout Europe to classical Chinese poetry Chinese Songs in a French Key tells the extraordinary story of the birth rebirth and rich afterlife of The Book of Jade Pauline Yu traces the research and creative process behind the book including Gautier s collaboration with a Chinese refugee known as Tin Tun Ling She shows through juxtapositions with original Chinese texts how Gautier s imaginative strategies conveyed core elements of Chinese poetry to a European audience Yu explores how the work s influence reverberated across French letters Anglo American modernist poetry and the international history of translation The story also unfolds within Gautier s network of luminaries such as Victor Hugo Richard Wagner and John Singer Sargent and against the backdrop of France s discovery of China through scholarship and plunder Drawing attention to Gautier s audacity and accomplishments this deeply researched and elegantly written book provides new perspectives on the surprising routes cultural transmission can take The Hong Kong Government Gazette Hong Kong,1914 Books in Print Supplement ,1994 Words on

Illustrated Monthly Magazine ... ,1899 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1999 Fin-de-siècle Russia and Chinese Aesthetics Jinyi Chu,2024-08-30 Many are familiar with European modernists interest in Chinese art and poetry however less well known is that Russian literature and art at the turn of 20th century also flourished in a sustained dialogue with China In Fin de si cle Russia and Chinese Aesthetics Jinyi Chu reconsiders the place of Russia in the genealogy of global modernism by exploring the enduring impact of China on pre revolutionary Russian culture This book argues that fin de si cle Russian ideas about increasing global cultural and socioeconomic interconnectedness emerged from their unsettling encounters with China Drawing on literary texts paintings advertisements official documents and archival work in Russia China France and the United States Chu reconstructs surprising stories about cultural interactions From Innokenty Annensky s encounter with a Tibetan monk in Paris Aleksei Remizov s adaptations of Chinese ghost stories and Lev Tolstoy s translations of the Daoist canon to Ilya Mashkov s fauvist painting of a Chinese fairy this book presents a new cultural history of fin de si cle Russia in relation to the East Fin de siècle Russia and Chinese Aesthetics casts new light on the intricate relationships between geopolitics and transnational aesthetics It moves beyond the idea that Russian literary and artistic representations of China were simply manifestations of Russia's imperial ideology and Eurasian cultural identity Instead Chu shows that literature and art actively renegotiate and destabilize the preconceived world order at a time of intensifying geopolitical and cultural transformation when China shifted from Russia's rival in Inner Asia to a target in the competition of global imperialist powers
