Chinese Execution:

Visualising China, 1845-1965 Christian Henriot, Wen-hsin Yeh, 2012-11-09 In Visualizing China the authors launch a broad inquiry aimed at a synergistic understanding of the story of visibility in modern China The essays cluster around several nodal points including photographs advertising posters and movies from the 1840s to the 1960s China's Death Penalty Hong Lu, Terance D. Miethe, 2010-06-10 This book examines the death penalty within the changing socio political context of China The authors treatment of China s death penalty is legal historical and comparative focusing on its theory and the actual practice China John Henry Gray, 1878 Crime and Control in China Børge Bakken, 2022-10-12 China is a transitional society with one of the highest inequality rates in the world Criminologists would typify this as a highly toxic combination creating very high levels of crime Yet China reports extremely low crime rates How might this be With this book Børge Bakken shows that the reality in China does not match the rosy picture of low crime and rule by law that the authorities present to the world Looking beyond the statistics Bakken discovers that violent crime is a particularly sensitive issue deliberately censored by party propaganda and by an unaccountable police force that can vanish any type of crime to a degree that makes a crime rate a mere formality As Bakken reveals official Chinese crime statistics cannot be used to make assumptions about China s crime profile Even the assumption that crime represents the problem and control its solution is not valid Bakken argues Because when control becomes part of the problem the false assumption of a harmonious society evaporates rendering harmony a myth and violence the traumatic reality This meticulous investigation of crime and justice in China is crucial reading for those interested in the Chinese regime and China s state control as well as criminologists and sociologists of crime The Next Frontier David T Johnson, Franklin E Zimring, 2009-02-02 Today two thirds of the world s nations have abolished the death penalty either officially or in practice due mainly to the campaign to end state executions led by Western European nations Will this success spread to Asia where over 95 percent of executions now occur Do Asian values and traditions support capital punishment or will development and democratization end executions in the world s most rapidly developing region David T Johnson an expert on law and society in Asia and Franklin E Zimring a senior authority on capital punishment combine detailed case studies of the death penalty in Asian nations with cross national comparisons to identify the critical factors for the future of Asian death penalty policy The clear trend is away from reliance on state execution and many nations with death penalties in their criminal codes rarely use it Only the hard line authoritarian regimes of China Vietnam Singapore and North Korea execute with any frequency and when authoritarian states experience democratic reforms the rate of executions drops sharply as in Taiwan and South Korea Debunking the myth of Asian values Johnson and Zimring demonstrate that politics rather than culture or tradition is the major obstacle to the end of executions Carefully researched and full of valuable lessons The Next Frontier is the authoritative resource on the death penalty in Asia for scholars policymakers and advocates around the world The Chinese Recorder and Missionary Journal, 1889

ADVENTURS OF TWO YOUTHS IN A JOURNEY TO JAPAN AND CHINA THOMAS W. KNOX,1879 Comparative Capital Punishment Carol S. Steiker, Jordan M. Steiker, Comparative Capital Punishment offers a set of in depth critical and comparative contributions addressing death practices around the world Despite the dramatic decline of the death penalty in the last half of the twentieth century capital punishment remains in force in a substantial number of countries around the globe This research handbook explores both the forces behind the stunning recent rejection of the death penalty as well as the changing shape of capital practices where it is retained The expert contributors address the social political economic and cultural influences on both retention and abolition of the death penalty and consider the distinctive possibilities and pathways to worldwide abolition The Chinese Students' Monthly ,1926 The True Story of Benjamin Franklin, the American Statesman Elbridge Streeter Brooks,1898 Chinese Recorder and Missionary Journal ,1893 International Bookbinder James L.
