Chinese Maps Images Of All Under Heaven:

Chinese Maps Richard Joseph Smith,1996 For nearly two thousand years the Chinese Emperor self proclaimed ruler of All under Heaven demanded the obedience not only of his subjects within China but also of peoples throughout the known world Maps played a crucial role in the administration of this vast system of states Charts of foreign lands and images of the barbarians that populated them presented the world as the Chinese wanted it to be seen with the Middle Kingdom as lord and other states as vassals paying tribute to it In this richly illustrated history Richard J Smith shows how the Chinese depicted foreign lands and peoples in maps and encyclopedias through the centuries He discusses the debates surrounding the production of maps as well as their technical aspects and political military and administrative uses Reproductions of many of the most beautiful and noteworthy maps of the Chinese world accompany the text More than simple reflections of the lands and peoples they depict these maps and illustrations are documents that reveal the evolving values of the grand and powerful society that produced them Chinese History Endymion Porter Wilkinson,2000 Endymion Wilkinson's bestselling manual of Chinese history has long been an indispensable guide to all those interested in the civilization and history of China In this latest edition now in a bigger format its scope has been dramatically enlarged by the addition of one million words of new text Twelve years in the making the new manual introduces students to different types of transmitted excavated and artifactual sources from prehistory to the twentieth century It also examines the context in which the sources were produced preserved and received the problems of research and interpretation associated with them and the best most up to date secondary works Because the writing of history has always played a central role in Chinese politics and culture special attention is devoted to the strengths and weaknesses of Chinese historiography Recast All under Heaven Xiaoyuan Liu,2010-08-12 Territories and Trajectories Diana Sorensen,2018-06-07 The contributors to Territories and Trajectories propose a model of cultural production and transmission based on the global diffusion circulation and exchange of people things and ideas across time and space This model eschews a static geographically bounded notion of cultural origins and authenticity privileging instead a mobility of culture that shapes and is shaped by geographic spaces Reading a diverse array of texts and objects from Ethiopian song and ancient Chinese travel writing to Japanese literature and aerial and nautical images of the Indian Ocean the contributors decenter national borders to examine global flows of culture and the relationship between thinking at transnational and local scales Throughout they make a case for methods of inquiry that encourage innovative understandings of borders oceans and territories and that transgress disciplinary divides Contributors Homi Bhabha Jacqueline Bhabha Lindsay Bremner Finbarr Barry Flood Rosario Hubert Alina Payne Kay Kaufman Shelemay Shu mei Shih Diana Sorensen Karen Thornber Xiaofei Tian Mapping Asia: Cartographic Encounters Between East and West Martijn Storms,Mario Cams,Imre Josef Demhardt,Ferjan Ormeling,2018-06-27 This proceedings book presents the first ever cross disciplinary analysis of 16th 20th century South East and Southeast Asian cartography The central theme of the conference was the mutual influence of Western and Asian cartographic traditions and the focus was on points of contact between Western and Asian cartographic history Geographically the topics were limited to South Asia East Asia and Southeast Asia with special attention to India China Japan Korea and Indonesia Topics addressed included Asia's place in the world the Dutch East India Company toponymy Philipp Franz von Siebold maritime cartography missionary mapping and cadastral mapping China and the Silk Roads (ca. 100 BCE to 1800 CE) Angela Schottenhammer, 2023-09-14 The book investigates China's relations to the outside world between ca 100 BCE and 1800 CE In contrast to most histories of the Silk Roads the focus of this book clearly lies on the maritime Silk Road and on the period between Tang and high Qing selecting aspects that have so far been neglected in research on the history of China's relations with the outside world The author examines for example issue of imperialism in imperial China the specific role of frontier tribal troops during Song times the interrelationship between maritime commerce military expansion and environmental factors during the Yuan the question of whether or not early Ming China can be considered a proto colonialist country the role force and violence played during the Zheng He expeditions and the significance the Asia Pacific world possessed for late Ming and early Qing rulers
