Chinese Mask:

American Paradiplomacy and Chinese Power Czeslaw Tubilewicz, 2024-12-31 This book investigates contemporary US China subnational relations and considers the extent to which subnational national and international power contests inform American states strategies of internationalization Approaching the subject from a constructivist perspective the book contributes to debates about the relevance of subnational diplomacy to US politics diplomacy and security It evaluates the efficacy of Chinese power through influence and interference in co-opting American subnational elites re-framing their and the wider public's social knowledge about China and re-shaping the interests norms and practices guiding relations with China The book also identifies the limits of Chinese power by exploring how a shift in dominant narratives produces new understandings of opportunities and risks associated with China Featuring new empirical evidence and a novel theoretical framework this book will be a valuable resource for students of American politics and foreign relations paradiplomacy federal studies China studies and international relations

Chinese History Endymion Porter Wilkinson, 2000 Endymion Wilkinson's bestselling manual of Chinese history has long been an indispensable guide to all those interested in the civilization and history of China In this latest edition now in a bigger format its scope has been dramatically enlarged by the addition of one million words of new text Twelve years in the making the new manual introduces students to different types of transmitted excavated and artifactual sources from prehistory to the twentieth century It also examines the context in which the sources were produced preserved and received the problems of research and interpretation associated with them and the best most up-to-date secondary works Because the writing of history has always played a central role in Chinese politics and culture special attention is devoted to the strengths and weaknesses of Chinese historiography
