Choice Of Coleridge's Verse:

A Choice of Coleridge's Verse Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1996 Coleridge's flawed genius has fascinated people for almost 200 years. His greatest poems have a quality which sets them apart from and perhaps above those of even his most admired Romantic contemporaries. Yet they sit oddly too with the bulk of his own work seeming to spring if not from a different sensibility then at least from a different state of mind. Here Ted Hughes describes the psychological ordeal which produced the supreme utterances of Kubla Khan, The Rime of the Ancient Mariner and Christabel Part One and his choice gives us those poems in the company of others related to them. The result is a daring and radical attempt to get to the heart of Coleridge's spiritual and poetic concerns.

The New School of the Imagination John O'Meara, 2007-09-06 This essay offers a radical view of the post Renaissance Western literary scene inasmuch as Rudolf Steiner's Anthroposophy bears a relation to it principally through his Mystery Plays. A number of major authors are highlighted as having an intrinsic connection with the Anthroposophical revelation notably T.S. Eliot and especially S.T. Coleridge. The prospect of a new cultural poetic for the future is outlined in connection especially with these two major figures of English critical poetic tradition. Other authors that are considered include Wordsworth, Goethe, Lawrence, Yeats, Graves, Hughes, Milton, Swift and Blake. Strindberg, Hemingway and Beckett. Steiner's Plays were never intended as Literature as we know that discipline today but they provide a singular point of view from which the idea of Literature can be re-evaluated and new directions set forth that represent a transformed prospect for Literature in the future. Some of our most distinguished authors of the past are seen in a new light as if it had been their struggle to reach out to the possibilities Steiner's Plays bring forth.

The Elegies of Ted Hughes E. Hadley, 2010-05-07 The elegiac aspect of Ted Hughes' poetry has been frequently overlooked an oversight which this book sets out to rectify. Encompassing a broad range of themes from the decline of nature and local industry to the national grief caused by the First World War this book is a comprehensive addition to the study of Hughes' poetry.

The Poetry of Ted Hughes Sandie Byrne, 2014-08-15 This Reader's Guide charts the reception history of Ted Hughes' poetry from his first to last published collection culminating in posthumous tributes and assessments of his lifetime achievement. Sandie Byrne explores the criticism relating to key issues such as nature myth the Laureateship and Hughes' relationship with Sylvia Plath.

Critical Survey of Poetry Philip K. Jason, 2003 Presents alphabetized profiles of nearly seven hundred significant poets from around the world providing biographies primary and secondary bibliographies and analysis of their works.

Coleridge and Wordsworth Paul Magnuson, 2014-07-14 Paul Magnuson contends that the relationship between Coleridge's and Wordsworth's poetry is so complex that a new criticism is required to trace its intricacies. This book demonstrates that their poems may be read as parts of a single evolving whole a dialogue in which the works of one are responses to and rewritings of those of the other Professor Magnuson discloses this dialogue as a joint canon or sequence which includes the complete early versions of poems as well as fragments canceled drafts and poems in progress He further shows that this sequence is based on lyric structure the relations among its poems and fragments resemble those among stanzas in an ode and individual poems take their significance from their surrounding contexts in the dialogue Coleridge's and Wordsworth's poetic conversation arose from their recognition that their themes and styles were similar There were as one of Coleridge's friends said fears of amalgamation and it was actually from their failed attempts to collaborate on individual works that their dialogue began The first chapter of the book elaborates a dialogic methodology and the following chapters discuss the dialogic relationship between Wordsworth's Salisbury Plain poems and The Ancient Mariner The Ruined Cottage and Coleridge's Christabel Coleridge's Conversation Poems and Wordsworth's Tintern Abbey Wordsworth's Goslar poetry of 1798 Home at Grasmere and Lyrical Ballads 1800 and the dejection dialogue of 1802 Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Poems of Coleridge Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1905 The Guardian Index, 1996 Coleridge's Principle's of Criticism, Chapters I., III., IV., XIV-XXII of "Biographia Literaria," with Introduction and Notes Samuel Taylor Coleridge, Andrew Jackson George, 1897 Transnational England Monika Class, Terry F.
